Only 71-Ballot Edge Among 21,745 Votes

Marin County voters yesterday approved, by 14,568 "yes" to 7,177 "no", issuance of $7,750,000 in 20-year general obligation bonds to finance the Hall of Justice addition to the Marin County Civic Center.

The issue required a two-thirds vote of approval, with a total of 21,745 votes cast, 14,497 would have been necessary for passage. The margin of passage thus was only 71 votes.

The turnout represented 28 per cent of the 77,937 eligible to vote.

RAN AGAINST

The tally, announced by County Clerk George H. Gnoss, includes 246 absentee ballots. Gnoss announced the absentees ran against the measure by 133 "no" to 113 "yes."

Election results will be canvassed by the board of supervisors Tuesday.

Sentiment regarding the bonds varied greatly from precinct to precinct, particularly in San Rafael, Gnoss noted. He said one San Rafael precinct had 145 to 40 in favor of the issue, while in another the figures were exactly reversed—40 in favor and 145 against.

HOPES TO START

The county hopes to start construction on the addition early in 1966. Cost has been estimated at $11,756,000. To augment the bond money, the county has $2,075,000 on hand from the special civil center tax levied in past years, and hopes to realize $1,410,000 from sale of the courthouse block in downtown San Rafael.

County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell said today that the bonds will probably be sold between now and December, aimed at the most favorable time for getting a low interest rate. He said the county hopes to sell the bonds for three and an eighth per cent interest, maybe less.

The plan is to ask for bids

Lagunitas School Tax Hike Passes

A 20-cent increase in the general purpose tax rate in Lagunitas School District was approved by vote of 289 "yes" to 219 "no" in yesterday's election.

The measure required only a simple majority for passage. It permits the district to levy a general purpose operating tax of $2.85 per $100 assessed valuation for two years. Over-ride and bond redemption taxes are additional.

The turnout was 44.9 per cent of the 1,127 registered voters in the district — far above the 28 per cent turnout county-wide to vote on Civic Center bonds, the county clerk's office noted.

The money is to be used to lease two portable classrooms for Lagunitas School, which will aviod double sessions next fall and make possible use of the multi-purpose room for its intended purpose. The multi-purpose room houses two classes this year.

Supt. Marshall McCunniff said he will prepare advertisement for bids on the portable classrooms immediately, with bids to be opened at the July 6 meeting of the district board. It is hoped to have the classrooms ready before opening of school in September.

Within two years, the district hopes to build a second school, though as yet no agreement has been reached on a site.

Boy, 4, Learns Hard Way Underpass Not Play Area

By JEFF GREER

Dale Fox, 4 years old, has learned the hard way that San Rafael's Linden Lane underpass is no place to play.

Dale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denver A. Fox of 1516 Lincoln Avenue, hope other neighborhood youngsters take the lesson to heart.

Dale, youngest of their five children, spent more than a week in San Rafael General Hospital under treatment for a fractured skull, after falling 16 feet from the Northwestern Pacific railroad grade to Linden Lane below.

"I've raised five children, and this is the first accident," Mrs. Fox said. "We had warned all our children to stay away from that place. You can see it from my back porch. Other children play there all the time."

Dale slipped out of the house on May 29 while his parents were busy with guests. When the father went looking for him five minutes later, Dale's unconscious form had already been spotted by a motorist driving through the underpass, Mrs. John T. Landrock of 5 Grand Court, San Rafael.

She went to a nearby grocery store to summon help. The father held the youngster, who was struggling to regain consciousness, until an ambulance arrived.

Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa said Dale was the first child known to have fallen from the structure since it was built in in the early 1940s. Police receive occasional complaints of youngsters playing on the railroad bridge or retaining walls along Linden, but more often have problems with childish scribblings on the walls of the pedestrian walkway beneath, he said.

City Mga. Dan E. Andersen looked up the files, to find that the underpass had been built by the state, subject to approval by the Northwestern Pacific Railroad.

The agreement calls for the railroad to maintain the structure and its fences.

Andersen said it would require study to determine whether anything should be done about the "attractive nuisance." It most likely will be replaced in the next three years, in connection with Highway 101 freeway work.

Inspection reveals that the fences are intact, but designed in such a way that agile youngsters can climb around them onto the rail bridge parapet or the steep retaining walls. Or, they can cilmb to the tops of the walls from Linden Lane itself.

Meanwhile, Dale is sticking close to home. He got plenty of attention in the hospital—"the people were just wonderful to him," said his mother—but he'd just as soon not go through that again.

San Rafael Teachers Demand Pay Action

By ALAN P. CUNNINGHAM

Some 83 San Rafael teachers, most from Terra Linda High School, last night demanded that the San Rafael Board of Education either call for an August tax increase election or agree at once to levy an extra override tax to finance a 5.7 per cent across-the-board salary hike.

The board did neither, but agreed to talk about an October election at its June 22 meeting.

The demands were made by Terra Linda High School English teacher Robert B. Schwartz, who had appeared at an earlier meeting on behalf of the San Rafael chapter, American Federation of Teachers.

Reading a statement which he said had been signed by 83 teachers, Schwartz said the group feels "the recent 3.2 per cent pay increase voted by the board is totally inadequate." He urged board members to take these actions:

1. Apply money set aside for the 3.2 per cent raise "where it is most needed in the budget (for instance, to hire the necessary number of elementary school teachers to maintain a proper pupil-teacher ratio."

2. Set up a committee of board members, administrators and teachers to estimate long-term district financial needs, "to decide how large a tax raise we should seek, and to draw up a more competitive salary sched-

Fishing Boat Has Troubles

A Sausalito fishing party boat with 14 aboard was under tow by a Coast Guard cutter this afternoon after it began taking on water and threatened to sink about four miles northeast of the Farallones.

The Salmon Queen, owned by Hank Schramm and operating out of Caruso's Bait and Tackle Shop at Sausalito, radioed the Coast Guard shortly before noon that it was in danger of sinking.

A Coast Guard helicopter dropped two water pumps, of which one was recovered to pump the threatened vessel. A Coast Guard cutter later took it in tow and expected to reach the Associated Dredging dock in Sausalito about 3 p.m.

A State Fish and Game Department boat also was assisting in the rescue.

CORTE MADERA POPULATION IS NOW 8,200

Corte Madera has 8,200 people, as of April 1, according to a State Department of Finance Estimate, Town Clerk Betty Behel announced yesterday.

The figure is up 450 from last year at the same time. It is important to the town because certain state aid, especially the share of the automobile registration tax, is based on population.

The clerk estimated that the town stands to gain between $4 and $5 for each new inhabitant.

Novato Asks Out Of Marin Fire Tax Area

The Novato City Council last night asked the Marin County Board of Superivsors to exclude Novato property from the county tax for fire protection.

Mayor Robert D. Carrow described the move as the first taxation of city residents.

Councilman Douglas M. Merrill reported investigation disclosed there is a state law exempting cities from a county fire tax where there is a city fire department or fire district. He said it seemed strange no other city has attempted to take advantage of the exemption.

Mayor Says Dope Given To Hook Youths

Marijuana pushers gave away samples in Sausalito's Vina del Mar Plaza to get teen-agers hooked on the weed, Sausalito Mayor Jan Paul Dyk declared today.

He called for a crackdown on "human trash" that "have been regarded sometimes as sort of cute and belonging to the atmosphere of Sausalito."

Meanwhile, the mother of a juvenile arrested in the weekend marijuana roundup in Southern Marin wrote Mill Valley Police Chief Dan Terzich:

"I only hope that the fine work that you and your men have done will not go down the drain by a lenient court. I want to see those responsible for this dreadful blight on our young people punished and punished hard."

Mayor Dyk said the marijuana investigation had disclosed that "Vina del Mar was the place where such characters would congregate and talk and, just like a slick salesman, get teenagers started by giving marijuana away free.

"This is not a free gesture. It is a hard-boiled sales pitch to build up a future clientele for this vicious traffic which inevitably will ruin human life as

Bagley Inheritance Tax Proposal In Narrow Win

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A bitter Assembly dogfight ended early today with passage by a bare majority of a bill to abolish California's controversial inheritance tax appraisers.

The vote was 41-30, with 19 Democrats and 22 Republicans supporting the measure. Roll calls on it began at 10 p.m. yesterday and finally ended at 1:15 a.m. today. Several vote changes kept the issue in doubt until the end, along with the absence of some members.

The measure by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, would revamp the current system by which the state collects inheritance tax from the estates of dead persons.

Instead of a corps of about 150 appraisers appointed by the politically partisan state controller, the survivors of the deceased would do the job on a self-assessment basis. The system would be taken over by the State Board of Equalization, removing it entirely from politics.

The Bagley measure was strongly supported by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles. Since he was hospitalized in San Francisco, the speaker couldn't vote on the matter.

Fire Routs 70 In Alameda Hotel

ALAMEDA (UPI)—An $80,000 fire at Hotel Alameda routed 70 guests last night.

One fireman, William Lenehan, suffered smoke inhalation and was taken to Alameda Hospital. No other injuries were reported.

The blaze, reported at 9:10 p.m., started at the bottom of an elevator shaft and spread through the shaft to three floors.

Astronauts Get Set For Welcome Home

ABOARD THE WASP (AP) — James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White II, now close enough to home to see their own historic space-walk film on shipboard television, began their final festive day at sea today and got set for a round of welcomes awaiting them ashore.

Almost all of the intensive medical testing behind them, the astronauts' schedule today called for "technical debriefing" — talking into tape recorders at length about their four-day mission and being questioned in detail by space experts.

The Gemini 4 twins said their most memorable moments of the flight were, for White, his 20-minute stroll in space, and, for McDivitt, the capsule's reentry through the earth's atmosphere.

They were among the mililons who thrilled at the sight of vivid movies of the space stroll. The films were released yesterday in Houston, Tex., and the astronauts saw a televised version late last night.

Space doctors also continued to be mildly amazed at the astronauts' fine physical condition after their arduous journey.

Medical tests showed little ill effects on the astronauts' hearts from four days of weightlessness, though there was one minor health problem yesterday: McDivitt had a nosebleed.

Doctors said the nosebleed probably resulted from the White House Clarifies Role In Viet War

COMBINED AP & UPI

The White House said today that the U.S. commander has had all along the newly reported authority to commit U.S. forces to "support" fighting if the South Vietnamese ask and need help, and it does not mean those forces can join in an offensive.

The statement said Gen. William C. Westmoreland has had the authority since Marines were landed in the Southeast Asian nation in March.

Nevertheless, the White House statement represented a pullback from implications of a State Department declaration yesterday. That statement was interpreted as opening the way for troops in Viet Nam to go on the offensive.

The key part of the White House statement said:

"If help is requested by appropriate Vietnamese commanders, Gen. Westmoreland also has authority within the assigned mission to employ these troops in support of Vietnamese forces faced with aggressive attack when other effective re-

Soviet Moon Probe Still On Way

MOSCOW (AP)—Luna 6 apparently sped on toward the moon today with Soviet officials maintaining silence on both the progress and the goals of the unmanned space satellite.

Britain's Jodrell Bank Observatory said its giant radiotelescope picked up strong signals from the Soviet moon probe last night.

Morning newspapers in Moscow carried only the original announcement of the launch yesterday. There was no further information on the distance the automatic space station has traveled from the earth or whether it is still close to the planned flight trajectory.

The satellite, believed to be the second Soviet attempt in a month to try a soft landing on the moon, is expected to reach the lunar surface Friday night.

Mississippi Republicans Win

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Jubilant Republican leaders looked confidently to the future today after GOP victories in mayor's races at Columbus and Hattiesburg—the first major municipal triumphs in Mississippi party history.

Former Democrats Paul E. Grady of Hattiesburg and R. D. Harmond of Columbus were the causes of the big Republican cheers.

Grady unseated Democratic Mayor Claude Pittman Jr., 2,438 votes to 1,836, while Harmond whipped Mayor William Propst 1,394 to 1,191 in yesterday's municipal elections.

The GOP also won two alderman posts at Drew, two at D'Lo and one at Magee, and one council seat at Columbus. A Republican also captured a non-partisan alderman race at Hollandale.

West's Crime Rate Grows 14 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The FBI reported today that the nation's crime rate, which it a new high last year, was still on the rise during the first three months of 1965.

A 2 per cent increase over the 1964 first quarter figures was disclosed in the FBI's uniform crime reports released by Director J. Edgar Hoover. He noted, however, that the increase was "more moderate" than the "sharp upswing" of 1964.

The report reflected crime's move to suburbia. It listed rises of 6 per cent in suburban areas and 2 per cent in cities above 25,000 population. There was a decline of one per cent in rural areas.

A geographic breakdown showed increases of 14 per cent in the West, 6 per cent in the North Central region, and 2 per cent in the Northeast. There was no change in the South.

Federal officials were hopeful that the moderate boost was the beginning of a tapering off of the crime rate, which has more than doubled in the past 25 years. Last year's rate was 13 per cent above the preceding year.

Luci Baines Reveals Use Of Disguise

WASHINGTON (AP) — Luci Baines Johnson told almost all yesterday: She had worn a disguise, she had danced at the Marquette University prom, she had picnicked with friends.

Throughout the weekend fling —primarily in the Milwaukee, Wis., area — her whereabouts were a secret from the public.

"I'm human, too," the President's 17-year-old daughter said Tuesday. "I wanted for once to be out with my friends and have fun."

She flew to Chicago with her father Thursday, then with parental approval she disappeared from the public eye. Secret Service agents remained with her, but took extra precautions to stay in the background.

"I went to a lot of trouble," she said. "I did it because I wanted just for one time to be out with my friends and having a good time. It's difficult enough. I always have to have adults around and chaperons."

Then she added: "If you have to have them, I couldn't ask for better ones."

This time, however, she wantede to enjoy life without the press and curious sightseers.

She succeeded. She attended Marquette graduation exercises, the prom, Sunday Mass and picnicked in the Wisconsin countryside without attracting undue attention.

There were reports she had attended the prom, a silver-blonde wig hiding her dark hair.

Senate Votes Bill On Child Beating

SACRANTO (AP) — A proposal strengthening California's child abuse laws has been unanimously approved by the Senate. It is the first major change in the law in 60 years.

The bill by Assemblyman Don A. Allen Sr., D-Los Angeles, requires physicians, dentists and chiropractors to report cases of possible child abuse to law enforcement officials. The bill also grants immunity from civil liability to reporting doctors. Records of all reports of suspected child abuse would be maintained by the State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation.

The bill was approved without debate yesterday and returned to the Assembly for concurrence in amendments.

Dixie Moderates Say Changes Inevitable

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Three southern leaders — a governor, an attorney general and a bishop — said in separate speeches yesterday that Dixie must adjust to the changing racial situation if it is to progress.

Louisiana Gov. John J. McKeithen told his state's legislature that "if we holler for state's rights, we've got to holler for state's responsibility."

"If we can't put a stop to murder on our highways and murder and attempted murder by nightriders — if we can't put a stop to this, then we are not entitled to state's rights," McKeithen said at Baton Rouge. He promised the state would capture and prosecute the nightriders who shot a Negro deputy sheriff to death last week near Bogalusa, La.

Alabama Atty. Gen. Richmond Flowers told a civil club in Bessemer, Ala., that southerners are "going to decay apart and fall out of the running" unless they adjust to changing conditions.

"With every passing day we see very clear evidence reported. . .that some of the South's less short-sighted public officers are beginning to see that continued defiance and delay is too costly to continue," Flowers said. Flowers, a racial moderate, has been the chief critic in Alabama of Gov. George Wallace's racial stands.

At Tupelo, Miss., Bishop Edward J. Pendergrass told the annual meeting of North Mississippi Methodists that the racial problem must be solved "in the hearts and minds of the individual members of our local churches."

But he added:

"It should be apparent to any thinking churchman that no congregation can deepen the spiritual lives of its members and make an effective witness to Jesus Christ by placing special ushers at doors of the churches to select who will be allowed to participate in the worship services."

Glue-Sniffing Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A bill to curb glue-sniffing for so-called "kicks" among teen-agers won Senate approval yesterday.

LBJ Tries Evening Yacht Outings On Potomac River

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson has restored yachting as a presidential pastime these balmy spring evenings on the Potomac.

On several recent evenings, the latest last night, the Chief Executive slipped out of the White House at dusk to spend several hours cruising on the river. His guests have included congressional leaders and prominent figures in the world of journalism, among others.

This is a new form of relaxation for Johnson, and he has gone about it as quietly as possible to avoid attracting an unwanted flotilla of curious from among the craft which ply the Washington channel and the Potomac when the weather is good.

Johnson has made a gradual approach back to boating. Last year he used a 26-foot cabin cruiser on Granite Shoals Lake —recently renamed Lake Lyndon B. Johnson—not far from his Texas ranch for afternoon cruising.

The details of his current venture afloat have been kept so secret that an up-to-date naval log was not available.

EVERYTHING'S AGAINST HIM

Mark Demmary, 13-months old, didn't exactly have the best time in the world on his first visit to an Indianapolis, Ind., park today. He decided to reverse the customary process and climb a slide; the sun-heated metal scorched his youthful skin (top) and he retreated—only to plop (bottom) into a mud puddle created by recent rains. His mother rescued him. (AP Wirephotos)

Marijuana Arrests Spread: Two Girls

A young Sausalito woman was nabbed late yesterday in Arizona on a fugitive warrant charging sale of marijuana in Marin County, and a 17-year-old Tamalpais High School girl was arrested last evening for possession of the weed.

The two arrests bring to 19 the number of persons allegedly involved in a Southern Marin County marijuana sales, 10 adults and nine juveniles.

Arrested in Scottsdale, near Phoenix, Ariz., by Maricopa County sheriff's officers was Candice Haseman, 18. She posted $5,000 bail there, but indicated she would not voluntarily return to face the felony complaint, district attorney's investigators here reported.

Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said he will start extradition proceedings, probably on an indictment he hopes to obtain from the Marin County Grand Jury this afternoon.

The 17-year-old girl was arrested at her Homestead Valley home by a district attorney's investigator, a state narcotics agent and a Sausalito policeman about 6 p.m. yesterday. Officers said they went to the home on information received by telephone. A search of the girl's room revealed a small amount of marijuana residue and seeds, they reported.

She was being held today in county juvenile hall pending further questioning. Officers said she declined to reveal source of the weed.

Bales said he would also attempt to gain indictments in grand jury proceedings today against Don Edward Fleischer, 20; Ira Lewis Edwards, 19; Richard Nixon Applebee, 21; Peter Wright Lenihan, 31; Wilhelm Alexander Rossknecht, 27; Odus Hayes, 28; Tony Pastor, 26; and a "John Doe" who is not yet in custody.

All are being charged in Marin Municipal Court with felony marijuana sales, but Bales said he hopes to by-pass preliminary hearings through indictments which would take defendants directly to Marin Superior Court.

He said he also will seek an indictment against Susan Kerrigan, 22, of Sausalito, on a charge of possession of marijuana.

Expected to testify before the grand jury today were a dozen adults, including state, county and city law enforcement officers and chemists who examined alleged marijuana confiscated in the roundup.

Thirty teen-agers, some Tamalpais High School students, also were scheduled to appear, but it was not known if time would permit their testimony at today's session. Most of them have or will be granted immunity from prosecution, Bales said.

sure as the sun will rise tomorrow."

Warning that "these characters" will no longer be "regarded as cute," Mayor Dyk suggested the Sausalito police force may be increased in an effort to clean up the city.

"Sausalito is a respectable town and I think should have no truck with this human trash," he declared.

The mother, whose name was withheld by Terzich, wrote:

"It is time that our children realize that the community does not owe them, it is they that owe the community. . .

"I only wish that I had been alert enough to protect my child before this terrible thing happened."

Mayor Dyk said he had received quite a few telephone calls from people saying "I'm so glad something was done." He praised Sausalito Police Chief Kenneth H. Huck, Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales and Mathew O'Connor of the State Narcotics Bureau for their roles in the roundup.

VIET

serves are not available and when in his judgment the general military situation urgently requires it."

Military officials said the decision to commit U.S. forces to "support" fighting upon request is "a logical extension of what I've been doing out there."

The White House statement, however, drew tight limits for any such extension.

It said the newly reported discretionary authority does not alter the primary mission of U.S. troops in Viet Nam, which has been approved by the President. It restated this mission as "to secure and safeguard important military installations like the air base at Da Nang. They have the associated mission of active patroling and securing action in and near the areas safeguarded."

Meanwhile, Saigon reported two U.S. military advisers were killed and a third wounded today in one of two major battles which claimed more than 460 casualties on both sides.

While fighting raged on the ground and American planes bombed targets in North Viet Nam, Saigon itself was plagued with a political crisis that threatened to topple the government. Civilian Premier Phan Huy Quat asked the nation's generals to mediate in his two-way dispute with Chief of State Phan Khac Suu and dissident Roman Catholics, over cabinet realignment.

About 2,500 U.S. Army combat engineers landed today at Cam Ranh Bay, 190 miles northeast of Saigon, to build an airfield, port and supply center there, a U.S. military spokesman announced.

The spokesman hinted that more engineers were on the way. "Don't hold me to the 2,500 figure," he said.

The new base is expected to play a key role in the U.S.-Vietnamese war effort in the central and northern parts of South Viet Nam, the spokesman said.

The engineers bring the U.S. military force in South Viet Nam to nearly 54,000 men.

In the air war against North Viet Nam, U.S. planes attacked the big port of Vinh for the fifth straight day and the pilots claimed light to moderate damage to an army barracks area.

A U.S. military spokesman announced that government forces suffered their heaviest casualties of the war — 1,875 South Vietnamese and 51 Americans in the week that ended last Saturday. Viet Cong losses for the week were 1,305, the spokesman said, but these included no wounded.

The spokesman said 530 South Vietnamese troops were killed, 710 wounded and 635 either missing or captured. Ten Americans were killed, 6 were missing and 35 wounded for the same period.

The Viet Cong had 1,221 killed and 84 captured, the spokesman said.

HALL

on construction of the Hall of Justice in December, with construction starting early next year, Mitchell said.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney said today that much legal work has to be done in preparation for the building. His first job, he said, will be to prepare a contract for sale of the courthouse block which will allow the county to sell the property but continue to occupy it for two years during construction of the new Hall of Justice. This would be similar to the City of San Rafael's procedure in sale of its old city hall property to California Newspapers Inc., publishers of the Independent-Journal.

County supervisors had considered the possibility of a lease-purchase plan for building the Hall of Justice if the bonds failed to pass. The pay-as-you-go special civic center tax was not piling up money rapidly enough, they contended.

BAGLEY

But his aides teamed with Bagley in attempts to persuade reluctant members to back the measure.

On the first tally, the San Rafael Republican produced 22 votes, but had 25 against him. He kept at it during the evening and at 1:15 a.m. Assemblyman Clair Burgener, R-San Diego, gave the 40th vote. Assemblyman Leo Ryan, D-South San Francisco, then cast the 41st vote to move the bill to the Senate.

China's Bomb Might Mean Defense Gains

By JULES WITCOVER
Advanced News Service

WASHINGTON — Red China's explosion of a second atomic bomb may be boosting the chances for deployment of a costly anti-missile defense system in the United States.

Pentagon experts have found the Nike-X system, now under development, inadequate to deal with the type of advanced intercontinental missile attack that could be mounted from the Soviet Union.

But it is believed the system would be able to cope with a "primitive" ICBM threat of the kind the Communist Chinese might be able to throw at this country in the 1970s.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has been unwilling to go ahead with production of the system until its effectiveness is improved. It may be, however, that the emerging threat from Red China could persuade him Nike-X is worth buying short of complete refinement.

In addition to the question mark on performance, the system's effect on the national budget is a key issue. Both McNamara and President Johnson have been trying to pare the defense budget. Production of a complete Nike-X system could cost as much as $20 billion.

But a Nike-X network to guard against a less sophisticated nuclear attack might be bought for less than half that amount. While this program would be very costly too, it would do far less damage to the president's economy drive over the long run.

The Nike-X, to be effective against a Soviet attack, would require radar able to pick live nuclear weapons from numerous duds or refined radar-attracting decoys.

The basic system already has been tested and proved to be effective in hitting a single missile. The exercise has been described as "hitting a bullet with a bullet."

To guard against a Soviet attack, Pentagon planners have been thinking of a saturation network of an advanced anti-missile system to protect the large metropolitan centers and key missile sites.

Because the Red Chinese threat would be relatively cruder at first and limited by numbers and delivery capabilities, the Pentagon planners believe a "thin" deployment of Nike-X complexes across a widespread area would suffice for the next 15 to 20 years.

The estimate that the Communist Chinese will not be able to build an advanced intercontinental missile threat during that period is one that has been held in the Pentagon since before their first nuclear explosion. If anything, defense sources now say, their second explosion indicates they are proceeding at a slower pace than anticipated.

Wheather a basic or a highly refined Nike-X system is deployed the Johnson administration argues, a fallout shelter program is a necessary part of the effort. The reason is that enemy missiles always could be fired at an unguarded area upwind of a city, producing enough fallout to kill the inhabitants.

Construction of a defense against a "primitive" missile attack would not take care of other ways the Red Chinese could hit the United States—with manned bombers or freighters set adrift off the U.S. coastlines. These bombs would not need pinpoint accuracy because they would be monsters.

Dr. Ralph E. Lapp, one of the pioneers of nuclear weaponry, writes in Life magazine that the Red Chinese are capable of leapfrogging into the manufacture of super hydrogen bombs simply by making use of available technology. Their problem now and in the future will be delivery, he says.

Why should the United States try to build a defense against a Red Chinese attack without building one to meet the much more complex threat from the Soviet Union?

Pentagon experts, in defending the idea, point to other observations by Lapp. He warns that "China can, in a very few years, become the most dangerous nuclear power of all—not because the Chinese leaders can match the U.S. might, but because they do not seem to understand nuclear war and therefore may not be rationally deterred from starting one."

Lapp argues that Mao Tse-tung, Red China's boss, believes China can "afford" to lose 300 million Chinese, that most others in the population of 720 million will survive because they are dispersed, and that China has less to lose economically than the west.

All three points reflect an unrealistic comprehension of the power of nuclear weapons and of the damages they inflict on people, terrain and industrial complexes, Lapp says.

The Pentagon argument for a less-than-perfect Nike-X defense therefore gets down to the rationality of the potential enemy: The Russians presumably know better than to engage in a nuclear exchange; the Chinese may not.

For the present, there appears to be no inclination to rush into even the "primitive" defense. It will take the Red Chinese longer to develop missiles to carry their nuclear bombs than it will to deploy the Nike-X. In the meantime, Army advocates of Nike-X, who have been clamoring for deployment, will have new ammunition to aim at McNamara and Congress.

New Planner Named For San Anselmo

Allan J. Creighton, a safety engineer, was appointed to the San Anselmo Planning Commission last night to fill the vacancy left by resignation of Charles R. Leitzell, who became city engineer.

Creighton, 53, of 56 Bella Vista Avenue, is supervisor of the casualty engineering department of the San Francisco Branch, Zurich-American Insurance Co.

A native of Marin, he has been a resident of San Anselmo for 15 years.

Creighton was appointed by Mayor Woodrow V. Capurro and the council ratified the appointment by 4-1 vote.

Councilman John Reichmuth, who voted against the appointment, said, "I have nothing against Creighton, but I think there are better men available."

Capurro said the council had interviewed six applicants for the post, and commented that it was gratifying to have citizens interested in taking a thankless job and a hard job."

Councilman William Franchini said, "It's the toughest job in the city, harder than being a councilman."

The San Anselmo City Council also:

1. Introduced an ordinance that would prohibit uninvited solicitors from operating in the city. At the previous council session, Police Chief Raymond E. Buchignani urged adoption of such an ordinance.
2. Adopted an ordinance that restricts vehicles on riding and hiking trails in the city.
3. Opposed Western California Telephone Co. of Novato in its bid to have toll-free calls between Novato and San Anselmo but increase the monthly rate to San Anselmo residents and businesses.
4. Granted Richard Sherrill of 550 Sequoia Drive a 15-foot front yard variance for a carport on appeal after planning commission denial. The vote was 4-1 with Capurro dissenting.
5. Passed a resolution urging that the Post Office remain in the central business district when it is relocated. The resolution will be sent to the postmaster general, Rep. Don H. Clausen and Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel.
6. Postponed action on a report from Leitzell on revamping of parking spaces on Bank Street and Greenfield Avenue, and agreed to widen Greenfield, rather than lose parking spaces.
7. Adjourned until Monday at 7:30 p.m. at city hall for the first of three budget review sessions. Tuesday and Wednesday also are scheduled for budget review.

Salary Group To Be Explained

Marin County supervisors yesterday agreed to ask County Administrator Alan Bruce to explain the purpose of the county's executive salary committee to the Marin County Grand Jury.

The jury, following recent raises for county counsel, community mental health director and county health director, suggested that the two-man committee be increased to five members, adding representatives of industry, labor and the county employees association.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker, who serves on the committee with Supervisor Thomas T. Storer, said the grand jury did not appear to understand the purpose of the committee.

Nuisance Abatement Suit Is Authorized

Marin County supervisors yesterday authorized the district attorney to file a nuisance abatement suit against Stanley W. Taylor, who has allegedly done illegal grading and tree cutting in Harbor Estates on the Tiburon Peninsula.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney said the controversial work has been stopped. This suit would force Taylor to repair as much as possible what has been done, Maloney explained.

Hawthorne Hills Plan Defeated To Cheers Of Hub City Residents

By FRANK FARRARA

San Anselmo City Hall was rocked with cheers and applause last night when residents won their fight against a planned community development above Hawthorne Hills.

The outburst came when the San Anselmo City Council voted 3-2 against rezoning the site from single family residential to planned development.

About 70 residents jammed the council chambers during a two-hour public hearing to protest the plan proposed by Land Planning Inc. of San Anselmo.

At the close of the hearing, Mayor Woodrow V. Capurro said: "It's been kicked around long enough. It should be brought to a head."

Councilman Cedric E. Clute moved that planned development zoning be granted, and Councilman John M. Reichmuth seconded the motion.

The audience hushed as the voting began. Clute and Reichmuth voted in favor, then Councilmen William Franchini and Arthur W. Smith voted "no," leaving the count 2-2 and the deciding vote with the mayor.

After a momentary pause, Capurro voted "no." Before the echo of the "no" died, there was a deafening din of approval from the audience.

The residents, who had presented a petition with 350 signers, had been fighting since last summer against the proposed development which would place 71 residential units on the 21-acre site at the end of Valley Road.

William Clyde of Land Planning Inc. argued that the land was suited to cluster development, and that the buildings would cover only 11 acres, leaving the remaining 10 acres as open space.

Residents contended that the development, to be known as Oakwood Terrace, would create drainage and traffic problems. They opposed the density, which was estimated at 3.5 units per acre.

Clyde said his firm would contribute $10,000 toward solving the drainage problems, and claimed normal subdivision development would require more cutting and filling.

In rejecting the rezoning, the council went against the recommendation of the city planning commission, which favored planned development zoning by 4-2 vote.

Planning Commission Chairman Jerry W. Lloyd said the majority of commissioners felt "cluster development would require less grading, and felt strongly that it should be a planned district."

Planning Commissioner John F. West, who voted against rezoning, said he was not against planned development, but felt there should be further study. "I don't want to see this thing kicked out because of public clamor," West said.

He explained that under San Anselmo's zoning ordinance, when a council approves planned community rezoning it also is approving the density and location of the buildings.

"Everything is in one bite, and its a difficult ordinance to work with," he said.

Douglas C. Lindauer of 76 Valley Road, a spokesman for the petitioners, said the "developer plans to bury the valley under tons of earth."

Supervisor Schedule Might Be Changed

The new Monday-Tuesday schedule of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, which provides an evening meeting every other Monday, may not last beyond July.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen said yesterday he will ask for a change next month. He favors the old schedule with a day-long meeting every Tuesday, plus Monday night sessions for matters of special public interest.

County Hires Traffic Aide At $914 Salary

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday hired James Robertson of San Leandro for the new position of county traffic engineer at a starting salary of $914 a month.

Donald R. Frost, director of public works, told supervisors that Robertson was highly qualified and was willing to take a cut in pay from his present $1,023 a month "for the opportunities that are afforded by this position."

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker made it clear that he was tired of hearing of people who are willing to take a cut. "They don't have to come to work here," he said.

Leydecker noted Robertson would start work on the third step of the pay range set up for the job. He drew from Frost an admission that he hopes to have the position placed in a higher pay range next year.

Automation Seen As Assessor Boon

Marin County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel yesterday saw increased use of data processing—making possible more frequent appraisals—and a more experienced staff as the way to end sudden steep increases in property valuation.

Taxpayers have voiced frequent complaints over the cyclical reappraisal program which has often resulted in a big jump in valuation of their properties.

Broemmel said his staff has not been able to appraise as frequently as it should where properties are going up rapidly in value. Data processing will help by providing more quickly the information needed on cost equivalents, Broemmel said.

Broemmel appeared before the board of supervisors to reply to their complaints over "outraging" 20 per cent of the taxpayers each year through re-appraisals.

After hearing his presentation, the board adopted a policy that sets a priority for 1965-66 on using more data processing in assessment procedures.

The possibilities of the potential use of data processing in relation to appraisals are "tremendous, but the program design cost could be very heavy," Broemmel said. More data processing use could ultimately save money, however, he added.

Broemmel said his department formerly spent $90,000 with its old all-clerical methods of handling assessment work. It now spends $83,000 on clerical help and $23,000 on data processing, but gets more and better information.

A more experienced staff also would make possible more frequent appraisals, Broemmel said. In 1959 his department had 22 appraisers with more than four years experience each. Now, it has a larger number of appraisers, but only eight or 10 with that much experience.

Broemmel said he didn't have the type of manpower to spread out and cover the types of property difficult to appraise. He said he hoped in one and one-half years to have sufficient staff trained to take care of the situation. "Have patience," he urged the board.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen repeated his suggestion that increases in assessment, particularly the big ones, be limited to a per centage in any one year.

Broemmel said this would take a constitutional amendment.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss said that ranchers in the Novato area are hard pressed by increased assessments. One rancher complained his taxes have increased 400 per cent, he said. "How am I going to answer him?" Gnoss asked.

Broemmel said there is a growing concern among farmers in the county for tax relief, and some legislation may be asked soon to relieve the ranchers.

Chairman Peter H. Behr pointed out that taxes for one property tax class could not be reduced without having the difference picked up by another class.

Supervisors Split On Cash For Tidelands

Two Marin County supervisors, Chairman Peter H. Behr and Ernest N. Kettenhofen, were again at odds during the board session yesterday over the financing of the Harbor Cove Tidelands acquisition.

Under consideration was a recommendation by Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell that money be borrowed from the veterans memorial auditorium fund to finance the three-year acquisition, to cost $57,000.

Kettenhofen asked that it be continued until results of yesterday's bond election for the hall of justice addition were known. He said defeat of the bonds for the Civic Center might mean that money in reserve for that project might be the best source of funds.

Behr countered he did not want to "break good faith" with the city of Tiburon and the Strawberry Recreation District, which are sharing equally in the project with the county on a three-way basis.

Kettenhofen said in his opinion the board last week "broke faith" with the voters in not stating its intentions on what will be done about the Civic Center construction should the bonds be defeated.

The matter was continued until 8 p.m. today, when the board has a public hearing scheduled on the county budget.

"At that time we may act with harmony?" Behr asked.

"Yes," Kettenhofen said.

Examinations are being offered for the job of employee development officer, annual salary $8,650 plus military reservist pay, to serve reserve units at Hamilton and at March Air Force bases, according to E. A. Rossi, civil service examiner at the Post Office in San Rafael.

Supervisors Prepare For Taxpayer Assault

Marin County supervisors yesterday made preparations against another assault from property owners whose assessments have gone up for fiscal 1966.

The board set a meeting for 8 p.m. June 28 at the Civic Center, where representatives of taxpayers may be heard.

The meeting was prompted by Supervisor William A. Gnoss, who had asked there be a general session to inform and hear complaints from ranchers. Fellow supervisors liked the idea but wanted all groups invited.

Form for filing requests for adjustment was approved for printing yesterday. Supervisors hoped the forms would not be passed out like "handbills."

County Clerk George H. Gnoss said he had already received a request for 400 from one person.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen said he received a call from one constituent who threatened a march up Highway 101 on the Civic Center in an organized "taxpayers' revolt" on the first day of equalization hearings, July 6.

Supervisors shied away from a suggestion by County Administrator Alan Bruce for a mass meeting of representatives of all taxing agencies in the county to discuss budgeting and tax setting policies.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said it would probably result in "chaos."

Supervisors asked that the county counsel look into the legality of calling a vote on formation of a "city and county of Marin."

Kettenhofen had urged this be explored, primarily to call attention to what can be done to consolidate taxing agencies in the county.

Funds Being Sought To Save Sea Lion

The Sausalito Foundation is attempting to raise funds to recast the disintegrating stone sea lion in the bay along Bridgeway near Tiffany Park.

Sculptured in 1955 by Al E. Sybrian of Muir Beach, the statue is crumbling due to wave action. Money collected will be used to cast the lion in bronze, according to foundation president Jack R. Wagner. Contributions may be sent to the Sausalito Foundation, P. O. Box 567, Sausalito, said Wagner.

FBI Intensifies Hunt For Robber

BIG SPRINGS, Neb. (UPI)—The FBI distributed 250,000 "most wanted criminal" posters today, hoping to turn up a trace of suspected killer Duane Pope, the young man who police alleged shot three persons to death during a Big Springs bank robbery.

The federal agency said the posters, each bearing a likeness of Pope's boyish - looking face, would be sent around the nation but concentrated in the Midwest where the 22-year-old athlete lived, worked and attended college.

Yesterday agents recovered the vintage 1939 Buick convertible getaway car used after the robbery last week. The car, found on a downtown Wichita, Kan., street, also contained a 30-30 rifle.

Schools Phone Expense Again Under Scrutiny

Members of the San Rafael Board of Education got a partial report last night on how the high school district's telephone bills compare with other districts, but at least one board member was not happy with it.

Board member Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. said he was less concerned with what other districts were paying than with whether San Rafael schools were getting the most for their money.

Business Mgr. Charles Condrotte, aided by three representatives of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., said several alternate systems are available, but insisted the present central switchboard arrangement is the most efficient.

Condrotte started his report by noting that "comparisons are extremely difficult," then quoted figures showing that the Tamalpais High School District had paid a higher bill in a previous year than did San Rafael schools.

Kramer interrupted to say he would prefer to hear "where we have been spending our money and how we have been spending it."

After hearing that the telephone equipment in city schools would cost a $1,700 bill each month even if no call was placed from any phone, board members agreed they might consider different arrangements.

Kramer summed up his discontent by citing a relative's standard reply to his children when they complained that their friends were allowed to do things he forbade:

"When I tell you no, don't tell me who."

U.S. To Sell Arms To Saudi Arabia

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—The United States has agreed to sell Saudi Arabia a large quantity of arms, including "several air squadrons," within 30 months, the Beirut Daily Star reported today.

The paper said a high official of the Saudi Arabian Foreign Ministry told it the first planes would be delivered late this year or early in 1966.

Novato Council Bans Door-To-Door Sale

By 3-to-1 vote, with William Jack Adams against and Lucile Cannon absent, the Novato City Council last night introduced an anti-soliciting ordinance over the protests of approximately 30 people.

The ordinance is the "Green River Ordinance," so named for Green River, Wyo., where it originated. San Rafael has had it on the books for many years, but no other city in Marin now has it.

In opposing the ordinance, Adams said "it does not accomplish anything but makes it possible for a legitimate slicitor to be prosecuted."

Police Chief Robert Di Grazia said he favored the ordinance and other police chiefs in the North Bay area did also.

Donald Strall of Oakland, who manages a crew of high school boys selling magazines, said there is no other way for his organization to get business except door-to-door salesmen.

Russell Jackson of Santa Rosa, representative of Tupperware, said five housewives in Novato are selling his product through house parties.

"In cities where such an ordinance is adopted, they are afraid to knock on doors to arrange for new contracts," he said.

F. James Picchi, Novato real estate salesman, said real estate and insurance salesmen often had to make calls on an "uninvited basis."

Henry Fegita of Petaluma, a vacuum cleaner salesman, said he had worked Novato for more than 28 years without a complaint.

The same ordinance was rejected by a former council when it came up three years ago.

The council adopted the plan submitted by Sunset International Petroleum Corp. and Lawrence A. Coleman for landscaping street center strips in San Marin. The proposals had drawn protests from approximately 60 residents of San Marin at the May 25 council meeting.

Herbert Gordon, president of the San Marin Homeowners Assn., told the council the group had met with representatives of Sunset and had then voted "overwhelmingly to support their proposal," despite the fact maintenance cost, originally estimated at 35 cents per home per year, turned out to be $6.50.

The Novato City Council Also:

1. Authorized formation of an "Operation Downtown" committee to formulate plans for the downtown area. Councilmen Cannon and Adams were named to the committee. Adams resigned from the annexation committee to take the appointment, and Councilman J. Wayne Womack was named to replace him on the annexation committee. Other members of the downtown committee will be named later.
2. Passed an ordinance reducing the speed limit from 35 to 25 miles per hour on Novato Boulevard from Our Lady of Loretto Church to the western city limits.
3. Approved an addition to the Kaiser Health Plan contract by which a city employee may add children to the coverage at cost of 15 cents per child per month.
4. Passed a resolution asking State Sen. John F. McCarthy to work toward senate passage of Assembly Bill 1238, William H. Kirk's bill to require subdividers to sell school sites at cost. The bill has passed the Assembly.

County Budget Meeting Set

Marin County supervisors will hold a public meeting at the Civic Center at 8 p.m. today on the proposed county budget for fiscal 1966.

Tonight's meeting is part of the two-week program of budget review which began at 1:30 p.m. today with study of recommendations for the Department of Public Social Services.

Additional sessions will begin at 9 a.m. tomorrow and Friday and resume again next Tuesday.

Supervisors Shift Election Responsibility

After repeatedly saying that there was no real disagreement involved, the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday adopted the recommendations of Administrator Alan Bruce to transfer school elections to the county clerk's office.

The action came after Bruce accused County Supt. of Schools Virgil S. Hollis of "turning the tables a little bit" and after Hollis suggested that the election issue be turned over to a large committee for study.

The action was also taken after Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen asked, but got no firm answer on what would happen to election supervisor John Musser.

Kettenhofen said he had heard there was an attitude "that was not indifference, but not real concern" that one would expect in the office.

Bruce's recommendation calls for the new position of assistant county clerk for elections, who would have full responsibility for all elections. This, he said, would do away with the division of responsibility that caused confusion in the April 20 schools election.

Bruce said a meeting with Hollis on the proposal June 2 resulted in only some minor changes in wording in his report, which did not change the intent but "seemed more pleasing to Dr. Hollis." Bruce knew nothing of the committee suggestion made by Hollis to the board yesterday.

Supervisors turned down Hollis's committee suggestion and his request to retain a half-time clerk in the schools office for elections.

During the discussion, it was learned that some voters in yesterday's bond election had failed to get sample ballots. Judging by their smiles, this seemed to please Hollis and his assistant, Robert Stannard.

drying effect of breathing pure oxygen for nearly 98 hours. They said future astronauts might take along something to lubricate the inner nose.

The astronauts' schedule on their scheduled return to Houston tomorrow already was crowded with parades and other honors from their admiring public. Here's what's planned so far:

Tomorrow — Arrive in Houston at 10:30 a.m. (EST) for a parade, visit with their families, news conference, further debriefing.

Friday or Saturday—A likely visit to President Johnson's ranch in Texas.

Monday — Ticker-tape parade in Chicago.

Tuesday — Honors by the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. Both men are graduates of the university.

No homecoming plans were announced yet for White. He is a native of San Antonio, Tex., but has lived in about 50 cities, the son of an Air Force general. His parents now live in St. Petersburg, Fla., and a space center spokesman said the celebration probably would be there.

Space officials had to decline a number of invitations — including a traditional ticker tape parade in New York, Newark, N.J., and Miami, Fla., also extended parade invitations which were in turn "declined regretfully," said Julian Scheer, NASA associate public affairs administrator.

"It was a matter of scheduling," Scheer said.

White said his plainly was the 20-minute venture outside Gemini 4 — during which he said he did a little dance on the capsule, Haney reported.

McDivitt said the spectacular return to earth was the most memorable part of the flight for him.

"Watching the land go by, watching it come up closer, and watching the retro-adapter package fall away and burn up. . .the prettiest part of it all is re-entry," Haney quoted McDivitt as saying.

White said his second greatest thrill came at the moment of liftoff. "He knew at that point they were on their way," Haney said.

It also shows a world of superb beauty — greens and browns and blues and whites — slipping perceptibly by in a splendid arc.

Mother, Children Hurt As Car Hit

Sandra K. Dedina, 28, and her three children all complained of neck pains yesterday after their car was hit from the rear by a two-ton truck as it was stopped at 9:50 a.m. on Paradise Drive at El Camino Drive, Corte Madera, to let school children cross.

Mrs. Dedina, of 10 Channel Drive, Corte Madera, and were not hospitalized. Truck David, 9, Daisy, 6, and Robin, 4 driver Neil W. Watt, 43, of Petaluma, said his eastbound truck on Paradise Drive kept rolling when the brake pedal went to the floor boards, according to police.

Tolls Urged For Job On Highway 37

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Collection of tolls (25 cents per trip; 10 cents for commuters) is the only practical way to widen Highway 37 between Sears Point and Vallejo within the next 10 or 20 years, a Vallejo legislator declared yesterday.

Sen. Luther E. Gibson, Democrat from Solano County, is pushing SB 983, which would consolidate all Bay Area bridges (except the Golden Gate Bridge) under the California Toll Bridge Authority, and would allow tolls to be collected at the Napa bridge near Vallejo.

Dugald Gillies, legislative consultant to Senator Gibson, noted that the narrow road between Sears Point and Vallejo is the scene of many fatalities. He said the senator can see no way to finance widening except from tolls. The money from the tolls will build a four-lane freeway from Sears Point to Highway 80, the road to Sacramento.

Marin may also gain in another respect, Gilles said.

"By consolidation of all bridges, it would be possible to establish uniform tolls on all bridges. Eventually, in three or four years, this could bring lower tolls over your Richmond-San Rafael Bridge."

SB 983 has passed the State Senate and is scheduled for a hearing before the Assembly Transportation Committee tomorrow afternoon.

Supervisors Back Hikes In Licenses

Increases in fees for marriage licenses and court filings and business licenses in the unincorporate area of the county were endorsed yesterday by the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

The action came in backing bill now before the state legislature.

The board also voted in favor of the District Reorganization Act, Assembly Bill 592, which would strengthen the power of the Local Agency Formation Commission, giving it the means to force consolidations and annexation of government agencies.

The board opposed a bill to increase the number on the commission from five to seven members.

The board backed state bills to implement President Lyndon B. Johnson's highway beautification program.

Youth Arrested In Grand Theft

A fourth youth was arrested yesterday by Belvedere police and charged with grand theft in stealing a $1,000 pearl necklace from a car parked in Belvedere in early May.

The boy, a 16-year-old from Tiburon, and two 17-year-olds from Tiburon and a 15-year-old from Corte Madera who were arrested Monday, also were charged with petty theft and tampering with automobiles.

Land Exchange Meeting Set

The Sausalito City Council will hold a special session at 8 p.m. today in city hall to approve a land exchange agreement with Albert K. Engel, owner of the Glad Hand Restaurant at 588 Bridgeway.

To be approved is a long-term lease to Engel of underwater land outboard of the restaurant in exchange for a deed to the city of land needed to widen Bridgeway.

The council will also meet as a finance committee to discuss the fiscal 1966 budget at 7:30 p.m.

Scout Leader Dies

Bridge 'Fast One' Is Hit By Bagley

By WAT TAKESHITA

SACRAMENTO—Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District officials "tried to pull a fast one over me," Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, declared yesterday.

He referred to a study bill on a second crossing which the bridge district wanted him to introduce as his spot bill, AB 3363.

Bagley said general manager James Adam called him last Wednesday afternoon and said he had a "few little amendments regarding revenue bonds and the like." The legislator agreed to include them in his bill.

Bagley said he learned the next day that the "few little amendments" were all of the highly controversial Senate Bill 905.

The bill by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, has been bitterly opposed on grounds that it gives the bridge district too much power.

"All they had to do was to say they wanted to amend SB 905 into my bill," Bagley said. "I would have said yes or no."

The way the amendments were presented by Adam was "just plain, pure Mickey Mouse," Bagley charged.

"This is not the way to do business with the legislature. This is why some of us look askance at some of the representations made to us by the bridge district."

Bagley said he had to move AB 3363 out of the Assembly Transportation Committee in its original form yesterday, but he intends to have it amended when it gets to the Senate. The Assembly was in session to 4 a.m. today.

In the amended form, the bill would:

1. Give the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District authority to participate in an area wide study of a second crossing.

2. Give the district authority to issue revenue bonds to improve the existing span, provided a two-thirds majority of the boards of supervisors in the district approve.

Assemblyman Bagley said all the other broad powers that were included in SB 905 would be eliminated from his bill. SB 905 would have granted the bridge district such powers as issuing bonds and levying taxes.

Dixie Budget Is On Agenda

Trustees of Dixie School District, at their 8 p.m. meeting today at the district office at 35 Trellis Drive, San Rafael, will discuss a tentative budget for fiscal 1966 of $2,005,000.

The figure is $200,000 above the current budget total.

The board is also to consider a request for raises for classified employees and discuss again a change in boundaries between the Bernard Hoffman and Santa Margaita school's attendance areas.

Equestrian Honors To Greenbrae Woman

Mrs. William L. McCall of Greenbrae, one of the first women in California to become a member of the Equestrian Trail Patrol, was awarded the statewide equestrian patrol badge at a recent dinner of the California State Horsemen's Assn.

Undersheriff Eugene Meyer presented the badge to Mrs. McCall, a past captain of the 4M Sheriff's Mounted Patrol of Marin and Vice president of Region One of the California State Horsemen's Assn.

Lawmakers Vote College Probe

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly has approved what opponents termed "an educational witch-hunt" at the University of California.

A resolution calling for the investigation of the University of California and state colleges passed the lower house by a 44-11 vote yesterday.

The measure by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles, was considered as an "indictment of the people in the university," by Assemblyman Willie L. Brown Jr., D-San Francisco.

Meeting Postponed

The Belvedere Recreation Commission did not meet last night because the Belvedere community hall was being used as a polling place. The commission will meet at 8 p.m. next Tuesday at the hall.

San Rafael Teachers Granted Early Leaves

The San Rafael Board of Education voted 4-1 last night to grant leaves with pay to two Davidson School teachers so they could depart a few days early to start summer courses in other parts of the country.

Board president Walter J. Doll voted against the paid leaves, granted to English teacher Alfred Sparks and Spanish teacher Marilyn George.

The board agreed with president Hillis Newcomb of the San Rafael Teachers Assn., who complained that San Rafael schools should conclude classes earlier to avoid such conflicts. But members noted that setting up a school calendar is not a simple task.

The board approved working drawings and specifications for remodeling of the main building at San Rafael High School, expected to cost $658,000.

The San Rafael Board Of Education Also:

1. Hired three new teachers: elementary English and reading teacher Mrs. Jean Koller, and business teacher Bennett Harris and English teacher Victoria Russell, both for the high school district.

2. Acknowledged retirement after 34 years of San Rafael High School librarian Beatrice Bolton, as well as reassignment of Terra Linda High School English teacher James R. Soladay to chairman pro tem of the English department.

3. Accepted property at 16 Clorinda Street from the Bodin Estate.

4. Approved all but one part of the 1965-66 administrative and special service salary schedule, asking for more information on the duties of high school assistant deans before approving their schedule.

5. Approved the salary increase and fringe benefits for classified employees agreed upon at last week's budget session.

6. Authorized a call for bids "as early as possible" on athletic equipment for the 1965-66 school year.

7. Accepted two sets of earphones and connection boxes for the "Prime-O-Tec" reading system, plus $250 for library books, from the San Pedro School Parent-Teacher Assn.

8. Approved sale of $390,000 in bonds, last of the 1960 bond issue.

Millmen Strike In Third Week

Pickets continued their walks in front of some Marin County lumber and mill firms today as the six-county Millmen's Union strike went into its third week without any sign of settlement.

The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service reported no more meetings have been scheduled with the union and the Lumber and Mill Employers Assn. Their disagreement involves wage increases and other benefits.

Still being picketed are Mission Wood Products of San Rafael, Larkspur Lumber Co. and Fairfax Lumber Co.

Phone Rates Hearings On In Novato

About 75 persons showed up at the Novato Community Clubhouse today for the start of hearings on two telephone companies' applications for toll-free "extended service" between Central Marin and Novato-Ignacio.

Among the few morning witnesses was Novato Mayor Robert D. Carrow, who submitted a resolution passed last night by the Novato City Council favoring the extended service.

The hearing deals with applications by Western California Telephone Co. and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. for toll free service between Novato and Ignacio and San Rafael exchanges. Although tolls would be eliminated on the calls, the basic service charge would be increased.

About 17 men and women, including San Rafael City Councilman Charles W. Aby and San Anselmo City Mga. Douglas J. Flautt, indicated they would appear as witnesses.

Most of the morning session was spent identifying exhibits, most of which were submitted by Western, and taking witnesses' names.

Driver Fined $166

Robert Arthur Sandahl, 43, of 123 Bolinas Avenue, San Anselmo, was fined $166 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving on March 14. He was arrested by California Highway Patrol on South Novato Boulevard.

Black Point Community Plan Approved By Supervisors

With praise for the "imagination" of the proposal, Marin County supervisors yesterday approved the Black Point Planned Community Master Plan for 700 acres south of Black Point Cutoff.

The development, proposed by Alameda Homes and designed by Dan Coleman Associates, would provide lots for 1,700 single family homes in two "super blocks," each surrounding an artificial lagoon.

There would also be 600 multiple residential units, a golf course and shopping center.

Supervisors also approved residential planned zoning which will allow single families homes with an average lot size of 20,000 square feet on 165 acres north of Fairfax.

The change from interim zoning was asked by Matthew Farr. Mrs. W. E. Olson of Fairfax said the Fairfax City Council wanted some assurance that public parks would be included in the development.

Board members agreed this could only be discussed when plans for the development are submitted.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors also:

1. Awarded a $39,091 contract for Northern Avenue drainage improvements in Tamalpais Valley to Ghilotti Brothers of San Rafael, lowest of five bidders.

2. Agreed to urge the two major water districts to consider offering sewer collection and treatment service, and decided to discuss a county-wide sanitary service master plan during the coming budget sessions.

3. Gave permission for Supervisor William A. Gnoss to go to Toronto, Canada, June 30 for a four-day conference on air pollution control.

4. Delayed discussion of the proposal to increase the membership on the Marin County Board of Appeals from seven to nine members.

5. Approved a pre-school education program in the Sausalito School District that will be supported by $82,590 from the federal government under the Economic Opportunity Act and $27,580 from the school district. No county funds are involved.

6. Agreed that payroll deductions for such things as bond drives will require 25 per cent participation of employees, while deductions to benefit the employee himself will take 50 per cent participation.

7. Adopted an amendment to the billboard ordinance, changing the time for removal of nonconforming billboards from six months to three years. The six month period had been legally challenged, putting the ordinance on shaky ground for enforcement, Planning Director B. D. Dobbs reported.

8. Learned that the federal government will not consider naming any roads in the Point Reyes National Seashore after living persons. Supervisors wanted to know if a road or beach might be named for former supervisor James V. Kehoe.

9. Learned that additional petitions with 261 names had been received from the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club seeking landscaping of the Coyote Creek drainage channel. Administrator Alan Bruce reported that $4,000 is recommended in the budget for the work.

10. Backed federal legislation that would increase U.S. funding for open space purchase from 30 to 50 per cent of the purchase price.

11. Authorized $3,250 additional work on the family rehabilitation center in Lucas Valley due to ground water problems. Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said there was money in the budget under the contingency reserve to cover the added cost.

12. Called for bids July 6 on $485,000 in construction bonds of the San Anselmo School District.

13. Continued for another year the janitorial contract on the Civic Center with the Certified Janitorial and Window Cleaning Co., increasing the payment by 5 per cent to $3,878.70 per month.

Novatans Request Flood Bill Re-Try

The Novato City Council last night requested that State Sen. John F. McCarthy reintroduce his countywide flood control district bill in the legislature.

"I was disappointed at the withdrawl of the bill and hope that this bill or a similar one will be introduced at the next session of the legislature," said Mayor Robert D. Carrow.

McCarthy withdrew the bill because of opposition from several cities in Marin County.

Head Appointed For Point Reyes

Leslie P. Arnberger, a National Park Service employee since 1948, has been appointed superintendent of Point Reyes National Seashore.

He replaces Fred Binneweis, the second superintendent, who was transferred in April to the National Capital Region in Washington, D.C.

Arnberger, 41, is expected to arrive at Point Reyes next month with his wife and three children. A native of North Dakota, he received a bachelor of arts degree from Arizona State University and a master of science degree from Utah State University.

His first job with the park service was as a park ranger in New Mexico. He served as a park naturalist and assistant regional director for cooperative activities in Santa Fe. He was selected for the education program for federal officials at mid-career at Princeton University.

Arnberger also was in charge of studies of an area off the Texas coast that has become Padre Island National Seashore.

LBJ Bows; Some Veteran Hospitals Will Stay Open

WASHINGTON (UPI)—After six months of congressional nudging, shoving, cajoling and an occasional threat, President Johnson has agreed to take half a loaf on his plan to close veterans hospitals.

Citing "compelling reasons," Johnson yesterday announced plans to save five of 11 veterans hospitals and two of four soldiers homes originally scheduled for closing.

The VA will continue operating the Miles City Hospital and four others at Lincoln, Neb., Grand Junction, Colo., and Castle Point and Bath, N.Y.

The hospitals still scheduled for closing are:

Dwight, Ill., Rutland Heights, Mass., Fort Bayard, N.M., Broadview Heights division at Brecksville, Ohio, Sunmount, N.Y., and McKinney, Tex.

Reed District To Hire Aide For Principals

Principals of the Reed District schools will have some of the paper work taken from their desks by a principals' aide to be hired by the district.

Trustees approved the new post last night. The aide would oversee supply purchasing, supervise building maintenance, screen applicants for non-teaching jobs, be in charge of student transportation, science and art fairs and other district-wide activities, and oversee use of the school buildings and grounds by the public. Pay would be $9,000-$10,000 per year.

Trustees met briefly in closed session last night after the regular meeting at Del Mar School, but came to no decision on hiring a person for the post they created, board chairman Alyce Farkas reported.

Trustees expect also to hire a clerk for the new appointee, at $3,800 to $4,200 yearly, Mrs. Farkas said.

She said the combined salaries would about equal the salary of the Granada School principal, a post which trustees abolished as a separate job. John Fitch will be principal of both Bel Aire and Granada schools next school year.

Coyote Creek Project Gains

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A $360,850 state outlay to help finance the Coyote Creek Flood Control project in Tamalpais Valley is just about assured, State Sen. John F. McCarthy reported yesterday.

McCarthy said he received approval from the Senate Finance Committee to make Marin eligible to apply to the State Water Resources Department for the funds.

"It's in the budget now," said McCarthy. "It represents a step forward in the Coyote Creek project."

Fairfax Youth Garners West Point Spot

Appointment of Stephen F. Davis of Fairfax to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., was announced today by Rep. Don H. Clausen.

Young Davis is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Davis of 40 Merwin Street, Fairfax. He is a graduating senior at Sir Francis Drake High School.

Appointment of Stephen completed Clausen's two appointments to the military academy this year. Earlier, Clausen appointed Donald Stevenson of Novato. The second appointment was delayed pending completion of tests by one of the competitors.

Stephen's father, a well-known hair stylist, moved the family from Crescent City to Fairfax two years ago.

Stephen was sophomore class treasurer at Del Norte High, was a 1964 winner in the Lions Club speech contest, and was appointed to the Marin Youth Council as a representative of Drake High.

Dillon Beach Water Extension Approved

California Public Utilities Commission yesterday authorized Coast Springs Water Co. of Dillon Beach to extend its system to serve the 68-lot Oceana Marin subdivision, unit 1.

Lawrence R. Vanoni, owner of the 60-year-old company, now serves some 50 acres in Dillon Beach and a portion of a Portola Beach Townsite subdivision. The new service area is at the north end of the present area, and will be charged the same rates.

Quarter-Million Sought In Novato Park Budget

The Novato Parks and Recreation Commission last night completed its review of a budget of a quarter million dollars for fiscal 1966, which would nearly double the Novato city tax date.

The budget approved by the commission calls for expenditure of $225,020. This year's budget for parks and recreation was $40,405

This would call for a tax rate of approximately 60 cents, said Edward W. Adams, parks and recreation director.

The current tax rate for parks and recreation is 10 cents and the total city rate is 33 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The budget now goes to City Administrator J. Julien Baget, who will present it with his recommendations, to the city council sometime next week.

Knife-Toting Convict Draws Five Years

Albert Gilbert Renteria, San Quentin Prison inmate charged with illegal possession last Jan. 8 of a knife, pleaded guilty yesterday in Marin Superior Court. Judge Thomas F. Keating sentenced him to not less than five years, to run concurrently with his present term.

Renteria was committed to prison from Los Angeles on Aug. 31, 1956, for petty theft with a prior conviction. On Jan. 9, 1958, he was convicted in that county of first degree burglary, and again Feb. 5, 1963, in Los Angeles County for first degree robbery.

Coyote Creek Access Worries Neighbors

Thirty-seven residents of Tamalpais Valley have petitioned the Marin County Board of Supervisors to close the access from Flamingo Road to the Coyote Creek drainage ditch.

The residents, with addresses on Flamingo, Starling, Robin and Cardinal roads, request the action "for the protection of our children."

Queen To Lead Rite Feting Magna Carta

LONDON (UPI) — Queen Elizabeth II will lead the nation tomorrow in a service at St. Paul's Cathedral to commemorate the 750th anniversary of the Magna Carta — traditional source of the rights of free men everywhere.

Among the congregation will be both British and American descendants of the bold barons who forced King John to meet them on the medaow of Runnymede on June 15, 1215, and agree in writing to define their rights.

Sunol, town in Alameda County, was named for Don Antonio Sunol.

Blaze Forces Plane Landing

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —A fire in one engine of a National Airlines DC8 jet carrying 67 passengers today forced an emergency landing at San Francisco International Airport.

The four-engine aircraft, flight 126 to Houston, took off at 9:23 a.m. PDT, and returned to the field 23 minutes later.

Cause of the fire was still under investigation.

Grad's Name Omitted

ule that will incorporate at least a 5.7 per cent raise."

3. "Set a date tonight for a late summer tax election" or "agree tonight to levy an additional override tax at the elementary district sufficient to guarantee an across the board 5.7 per cent raise."

Discussion of an election was already on the agenda, as was a letter from Hollis Newcomb, president of the San Rafael Teachers Assn. He proposed that his group arrange for a free budget analysis by the California Teachers Assn.'s salary and budget services.

Board members responded favorably to this idea, and urged Newcomb to return June 22 with more details. After hearing that report, members said they will explore the possibility of an October tax election.

They were less enthusiastic, however, about one in the late summer. Schwartz said he felt "setting an unconvential date would dramatize our concern to the community." Board member Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. said he was "very leery" of the idea.

"The people who go away in the summer are the people with children," he said.

The discussion continued at some length, with many of the teachers adding sometimes heated comments. Several statements, by teachers and board members, drew lusty applause.

Supt. Bert C. Corona said the county counsel's office has asked for a minimum of 90 days to complete the mechanics of setting up any school election.

Observing that "this is kind of an awful lot to throw in our laps at one time," board president Walter J. Doll concluded that the board's consensus was against either an early vote or a tax override hike.

"You cannot hit the people over the head with overrides they don't want," he said.

New telephone rates to become effective

Pacific Telephone has filed with the California Public Utilities Commission lower rates for services to its customers within the State of California. The new rates, ordered by the Commission, will go into effect this month on an interim basis pending the fixing of final rates by the Commission at a later date.

For one-party residence service, the monthly basic charge will be 45 cents lower. For one-party business service, the monthly basic charge will be 70 cents lower. Other residence and business rates will also be less. These new basic monthly charges will appear on all customer bills dated on or after June 20.

Message units which are presently 4.25 cents each will be reduced to 4.05 cents. Starting June 10, message unit calls will be charged at the new rate.

New Long Distance rates between points in California also become effective June 10. Calls over 80 miles within California will cost five to 25 cents less for the first three minutes, depending on the distance and type of call. Some charges for additional time talked also will be less.

For example, weekday three-minute station-to-station calls between San Francisco and Los Angeles will go down from $1.25 to $1.20, plus 10% Federal tax.

In addition to reducing its rates, Pacific Telephone will refund to its customers the difference between the new rates and the rates charged since July 20, 1964—the effective date of the rate reductions as ordered by the California Public Utilities Commission. These rates were held up pending a review of the order by The Supreme Court of California. The amount of the refund will include interest at the annual rate of 6%.

By July 1, a plan for refunding this money will be filed with the Public Utilities Commission. After approval by the Commission of a plan, we will notify our customers how and when the refund will be handled.

If you have any questions, please call your Pacific Telephone Business Office.

STUDENT PROBLEM— Raymond Torres, 17, one of 29 athletes recruited from Tierra Amarilla High School in Chama, N.W., wonders whether he can pick enough strawberries in Salinas, Calif., to come out ahead at prevailing scale of one dollar a crate. Senate Ready To Hammer At Assembly Tax Program

SACRAMENTO (AP) — An unfriendly Senate was set today to hammer away at the Assembly Democrats' $1 billion tax plan and pay for California's biggest-ever budget with a revenue program of its own.

The lower house leadership pushed through the tax bill yesterday with a bare majority of 41-36. Six Democrats joined with 30 Republicans in opposing Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh's prized legislative package.

The action followed lower house approval of Democratic Gov. Brown's $4.14 billion budget for fiscal 1965-66 — brought to a new high, the governor said, by booming growth in the nation's most populous state.

The Senate Finance Committee cleared its version of the bill. It is $3.6 million more than the Assembly measure, setting the stage for a two-house conference committee to settle the differences.

Unexpected difficulty for the tax program in the Assembly was followed immediately with signs of even more trouble in the Senate. Brown doesn't like the big package, either.

Chairman J. Eugene McAteer, D-San Francisco, of the Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee noted that the bill is long and complicated. He said "if we have time before the end of the session, we will give it full consideration."

Sen. George Miller Jr., D-Martinez, Finance Committee chairman, said it looked like the budget would require new taxes — but he wouldn't predict their shape or amount.

Opposition was expressed in the Senate to a provision in the Assembly measure providing for withholding of state income taxes.

That was only part of the major overhaul of the state's revenue structure proposed by Unruh, a Los Angeles Democrat, and Assemblyman Nicholas C. Petris, D-Oakland.

It boosts the sales tax from 4 to 5 per cent, bringing in $360 million in revenue beginning in the 1966-67 fiscal year. The money would be shipped back to local school districts to pay for an average mandatory reduction in the local school property tax of 25 per cent.

Cigarette taxes would go up from 3 cents to 8 cents a pack. Brown wants that, too, but not in a massive tax package.

But the 41-vote passage had the effect of eliminating from the package provisions granting property tax exemptions to businessmen, and owners of household goods. Sponsors needed a two-thirds majority of 54 for those provisions too take effect.

For the first time in years, Republicans joined with Democrats in sending the budget bill to the Senate 58-18 — four more than the two-thirds majority required.

Redwood City Voters Approve Bond Issue

REDWOOD CITY (AP)—Voters overwhelmingly approved a $9,655,000 bond issue yesterday for storm drain, water and sewer improvements.

Although only a simple majority was needed for passage, the measure received almost a 66 per cent affirmative vote.

Novato Council Tie Vote On Little League Finances

The Novato Little League will get a $500 city subvention from the parks and recreation fund, but by a close squeeze.

The Novato City Council, with Councilman Lucile Cannon absent, split 2-to-2 last night on rescinding its action of May 11 to grant the money to the Little League for maintenance of baseball fields. Councilman William Jack Adams and J. Wayne Womack stuck with the earlier decision.

The parks and recreation commission had protested that, if the city wanted to give the Little League money, it should come from the general fund.

Former Mayor M. E. Silva asked the council to budget $6,500 for the Little League for next fiscal year. It would cost the city $50,000 per year to run such a program, he declared.

He got no promise of that, but Mayor Robert D. Carrow promised to call in Little League representatives when the council discusses the fiscal 1966 budget.

Personal License

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Californians could get personalized license plates — with their three initials plus three numbers — under a bill passed 43-18 last night by the Assembly.

Baar Charges Prompt Closed Board Session

What was termed "the Baar question" was the chief topic last night during an hour and 20-minute closed session of the San Rafael Board of Education.

In the session, board members told schools Supt. Bert C. Corona to talk to teachers involved in a brief but bitter campaign opposing the May 3 appointment of Mrs. Anita C. Strom to the board.

They also instructed Corona to set up an investigative procedure to cover similar future situations.

These decisions were reported in the board's regular meeting, delayed 50 minutes by the lengthy closed session, for which the board had allotted only 30 minutes.

Also reported in the open session was a statement ottne board made by Corona after his investigation of charges made by City Councilman Louis H. Baar when Mrs. Strom was appointed.

Baar had said he found "a small group of teachers" was "intimidating the other teachers" at San Rafael High School.

Corona said Baar's charge applied "only to a very few members" of the school's faculty, adding that it was "unfortunate Mr. Baar cast doubt" on the integrity of the teachers as a whole.

At the open meeting's outset, San Rafael High School social science teacher Prosper Boutet, saying he represented the Marin Federation of Teachers, asked about the investigation of Baar's charges.

Saying that "more than a reasonable amount of time" had passed since Corona was told to investigate May 11, Boutet demanded to know the names of teachers involved, and the sources of all charges against them.

He got neither.

"Part of the board's deliberations this evening," said president Walter J. Dodd, "were relating to 'the Barr question,' if I may."

He then asked Corona to repeat his report, after which he told of the instructions given Corona in the closed meeting.

Christopher Huddles With GOP Lawmakers

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Former San Francisco Mayor George Christopher conferred with Republican legislators today but denied he was ready to take further steps toward a bid for the Republican nomination for governor.

Christopher already has given permission to his supporters to prepare a campaign. "In all probability I will be a candidate for governor," he told a Capitol news conference, "but I am not saynig this with any finality."

Christopher cited polls which gave him and U.S. Sen. Thomas Kuchel and edge over Gov. Brown in any governorship race. "Perhaps all of us would like to be a comrpomise candidate," he said, referring to a report that Rep. Alphonzo Bell of Santa Monica was willing to run for governor.

"Gov. Brown has lost considerable strength—not only from Republicans but also from members of his own party," Christopher said.

He explained he came to Sacramento to confer with members of the Republican Party caucus "on bills the party has been interested in."

Christopher suggested a one-house legislature as an answer to the state's reapportionment posal to split the state "the most terrible thing that could happen to California."

"I think we ought to be big enough to solve the problems of this state," he added.

Viet Cong Threatens To Use Outside Aid

TOKYO (AP) — The Viet Cong threatened today to call for international help if American troops fight alongside government forces in the Viet Nam War.

The statement commented on problems and called the pro a U.S. State Department declaration yesterday that the U. S. military command in South Viet Nam has been authorized to send American troops into combat alongside Vietnamese if requested.

Petalumans Elect Woman Mayor, Veto Unification

I-J Special Report

PETALUMA — Voters yesterday elected the first woman mayor in Petaluma's history and turned down unification of the Petaluma High School District.

The new mayor is Mrs. Helen Putnam, principal in Waugh School District, former Petaluma Board of Education member and former city planning commissioner.

She unseated incumbent mayor Norman P. Van Bebber by a vote of 2,337 to 1,885.

One incumbent and two newcomers won posts on the city council. Robert Lipman, sports and education editor for the Petaluma Argus-Courier, received the highest number of votes—2,535. Also elected were Phil L. Joerger, 2,151 votes, and incumbent Kenneth J. Colin, 1,923. Seven candidates vied for the office. Two incumbents were defeated.

Unification was defeated, 5,465 to 1,090. Voters had been asked to approved unification into the high school district of 12 elementary districts — Cinnabar, Cotati, Dunham, Lincoln, Laguna Joint, Liberty, Old Adobe, Petaluma, Two Rock, Waugh, Wilmar and Union Joint.

Also defeated was a $500,000 bond measure to build a new library in front of the Petaluma City Hall. The vote was 2,335, yes, and 1,849, no. Two-thirds approval was necessary for passage.

Three unopposed incumbent Petaluma Board of Education members were reelected.

Red-Ink Budget Set By District

The North Marin County Water District board last night approved a budget which was $275,826 out of balance, but did not ask for any increase in the rate of 22 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The budget, as adopted, calls for total revenue of $703,850, of which $587,850 would be from water sales and and $116,000 from taxes.

Expenditures, however total $979,676. The difference between expenditures and income will come from accumulated earnings and bond sales, said Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager.

The largest single item in the bond capital improvement program was $215,350 for the new office building and laboratory equipment in it.

Parks Plan Favored

Mill Valley planning commissioners last night considered the Marin County master plan for parks and recreation and open space and, in general, approved of it. The plan is to go before the county planning commission on June 21.

Rest Home Proposal Rejected

A 30-unit apartment building cannot qualify as a rest home, the Larkspur Planning Commission told the Soroptimist Club last night.

The club had proposed building the structure on a 32,000-square foot parcel on Monte Vista Avenue between Baltimore and Williams avenues, in a single-family zone. The commission ruled there would first have to be rezoning, and added there were too many units anyway.

The commission approved plans for a Safeway Store at Magnolia Avenue and Bon Air Road, allowing six fewer parking spaces than required by ordinance. Plans for remodeling and enlarging the empty Bon Air Market building were also approved.

The commission adjourned to a joint meeting with the city council at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the city hall to discuss the general plan with city planning consultant John David Erickson.

Too-Clever Youth Has Fast Excuse For His Prowling

It's more blessed to receive than to give—about $9 worth.

This apparently was true, at least for a youthful intruder of St. Vincent's School for Boys at Marinwood yesterday afternoon, Sheriff's officers said Rev. John Curran saw a youth about 19 years old roaming in the priests' house about 3 p.m.

The boy was asked why he was there, and said he wanted to make a donation. He then promptly presented an envelope containing $1.

Shortly after, Msgr. Clement J. McKenna, school director, discovered $10 cash had been taken from off a bed in the house.

As man takes land and water for cities and farms, the marshes dry up, the snails die and the kites disappear. Lone hope for the kite, according to the ornithologists, is to restore and maintain adequate water areas where the snails can flourish and the birds find ample marsh vegetation for nesting.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

Head colds that come and go for months or years often are due to an allergy rather than an infection. This is especially true when associated with nasal itching, obstruction, and bouts of sneezing. The sooner the origin of allergic rhinitis is found and eliminated, the better, because asthma may develop when the condition continues.

Typical attack usually are brief and likely to occur after exposure to dust, pollens, or animal dander. Other causes include hypersensitivity to wool, feathers, newspaper, foods, tobacco, and cosmetics.

Discomfort is aggravated by fatigue or worry and develops most often at night, while sitting in a draft, or after an alcoholic binge. The appearance of the inside of the nose gives the clue; the turbinates are swollen and pale instead of red, as occurs when infection is responsible. In addition the secretions are watery and contain cells related to allergy and not inflammation.

Pollens are suspected when the disturbance is seasonal; more so when the individual lives in an area where hay fever is rife. The best remedy is to find and eliminate the allergen (cause). Now and then the culprit is obvious because the nasal passageways block and sneezing occurs whenever contact is made with the offender. Extensive skin tests are needed when the cause is evasive.

Desensitization is possible when the causative agent cannot be eliminated. Sometimes a mild sensitivity to a number of items will add up to a severe allergy. This is why the job of removing possible offenders must be complete. By adhering to a few simple rules, and taking an antihistamine, most victims can remain on the job.

Cover the pillow and mattress with plastic and eliminate the use of wool bedding. Mohair is a common allergen and overstuffed furniture and toys should be removed from the home. House pets should be given to responsible friends. Draperies and carpets often hold enough dust to keep the nose in a turmoil; substitutes are available. Use hypoallergenic cosmetics. Air-condition the home, especially when living in a dusty community.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics it stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

RINGWORM CURE

E. L. S. writes: Is there a cure for ringworm?

Yes. Griseofulvin is an oral remedy. In addition, there are dozens of good fungicidal salves or ointments containing iodine, benzoic acid, thymol, salicylic acid, resorcin, sulfur, gentian violet, proprionic acid, undecylenic acid, ammoniated mercury or formaldehyde.

SATURDAY HEADACHE

L. H. W. writes: Do you have any information on Saturday headaches of the working girl? My friend does not work on Saturday or Sunday, but the headaches occur only on Saturday.

REPLY

This may represent a letdown, or tension originating in the home. Are you sure it is not an excuse?

ANESTHETIC REACTION

C. A. writes: Could one have severe abdominal distress following extraction of a molar with a pyorrhea pocket?

REPLY

Yes, if the anesthetic made you sick.

FAULTY CIRCULATION

C. V. writes: Would a hysterectomy cause faulty circulation?

REPLY

Hamilton Reservists Earn Still More Kudos

The 349th or Golden Gate Troop Carrier Wing of the Air Force Reserve, headquartered at Hamilton Air Force Base, will become the most highly honored reserve organization in the Air Force when it receives three natitonal awards at one ceremony on Saturday.

In a public ceremony at the headquarters building at 4 p.m., the wing will receive the Air Force outstanding unit award, the Loening Trophy for the outstanding troop carrier group, and the Air Force flying safety award.

Maj. Gen. Albert T. Wilson Jr., deputy commander of the Continental Air Command at Robins Air Force Base, Ga., will represent Secretary of the Air Force Eugene M. Zuckert when he presents the outstanding unit award to Brig. Gen. Rollin B. Moore Jr., commander of the wing.

Rear Adm. (Ret.) Edgar H. Reeder, national president of the Reserve Officers' Assn. will give the Loening Trophy to the 938th Troop Carrier Group of the 349th Wing.

Brig. Gen. Jack A. Gibbs, commander of the Sixth Air Force Reserve Region at Hamilton, will present the flying safety award to the wing.

The wing won the three awards for its performance during "Operation Haylift" last December, when it fed the snowbound stock of Montana and Idaho, for flying 966 accident-free missions to deliver nearly three million pounds of relief food supplies to the flooded areas of Northern California, according to General Gibbs.

Marin City Scholars Win Exclusive Prep Enrollment

Two Marin City boys are recipients of scholarships to an exclusive Arizona prep school, the first to receive scholarships in the Sausalito School District under the Economic Opportunity Act.

They are Earnest E. Clark, who lives with his grandmother, Mrs. Evelyn Clark, at 121 Drake Avenue, and Stanley Davidson, who lives with his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Williams, at 215 Drake Avenue. Both are eighth graders at Richardson Bay School, Sausalito.

They were selected for Verde Valley School at Sedora, Ariz., mainly for their academic achievement but also for being "pretty well-rounded students," according to Robert D. Thomson, Richardson Bay principal.

Both are on the Marin County championship basketball team.

The school prides itself on the international character of its faculty and student body, said Thomson. Students attend from Europe, Africa, Asia and South America.

The Marin City students will receive a complete scholarship of which the federal government will contribute $2,750. The government grant is renewable for another two years, provided the youths make a record at the school which is entirely satisfactory.

Terra Linda CSD Goes Over Budget

Directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District last night discussed the budget for fiscal 1966.

Mrs. Cleo D. Murray, secretary, said it is not expected that the total will be much different from the current budget of $39,000. The budget must be adopted no later than July 30.

Tiburon Chamber Fetes Old, New

The oldest and the newest were honored yesterday by the Tiburon Peninsula Chamber of Commerce at its luncheon meeting.

Louis Soldavini was feted for what the Belvedere City Council noted in a proclamation was his "conscientious and faithful" service to the city for 20 years. He is superintendent of public works and has worked for the City of Belvedere longer than any other present employee.

Tiburon Mayor Gordon W. Strawbridge was presented with American and California flags in honor of Tiburon's incorporation a year ago.

Another Big Loss; LBJ Attack Rumor

NEW YORK (AP) — A late wave of selling battered prices down severely before the close and produced another big loss in the stock market today.

Trading speeded as traders unloaded stock after a recovery move got nowhere following an official denial that President Johnson had suffered a heart attack. This unfounded rumor sent stocks into a sinking spell earlier.

Union Carbide sank more than 3, DuPont more than 2 and Eastern Air Lines nearly 2.

Steels had posted small gains in late afternoon but these melted. Chrysler and High Voltage Engineering held fractional advances.

Down a point or more were New York Central, General Electric and Kennecott.

An official of the big brokerage firm, Walston & Co., said the rumor that Johnson had suffered a heart attack "was going all around Wall Street."

"I don't know where it originated," he said.

The rumor spread to the San Francisco Stock Exchange.

The Dow Jones financial news wire, which goes to brokers' offices, reported that the President had met with a delegation of Iowa businessmen and that his physician said he was in "perfect health."

On this word, the decline stopped and prices recovered.

Volume for the day was estimated at 7 million shares compared with 4.67 mifllion yesstерday.

Key stocks still showed losses running from fractions to 1 or 2 points but many issues were unchanged and a minority posted plus signs.

A gust of selling accompanied the rumor that the President had a heart attack. The Dow Jones industrial average — which had been declining before — accelerated its slide, showing a loss of 7.03 at 882.02 at 12:30 p.m.—(EDT).

A prompt denial of the report by the White House physician brought an immediate recovery in stock prices. The hour of uncertainty and reasusrance brought heavy dealings which boosted volume for that period to 1.8 million shares.

Trading simmered down but it was still a lower market, although by 2 p.m. — EDT — the loss in the Dow had been cut to 1.92 at 887.13.

Eastern Air Lines looked like the most active stock and showed a fractional loss, having cut a decline exceeding a point. A 38,000-share block of Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton, off a fraction, boosted that stock to the list of volume leaders.

PROMOTED—Arlen G. Sciallo, with the Bank of Marin since 1963, has been promoted to operations supervisor, according to William P. Murray Jr., president of the bank. Sciallo started his banking career in 1958 with the old First National Bank, after military service and education in East Bay and Sonoma County schools. He and his wife, Louise, live in Inverness.

TWA Increases Monthly Record

NEW YORK — Trans World Airlines in May boarded more passengers on U.S. flights and flew more freight ton miles domestic and international than in any month in its history.

Traffic in all categories also set may records.

TWA flew 12,622,000 domestic freight ton miles, 33 per cent over the May 1964 total and 5 per cent over the previous monthly record in March 1965.

International freight ton miles totaled 6,868,000 an increase of 69 per cent over May 1964 and 2 per cent over the previous monthly record in April 1965.

Spending At All-Time Record Rate

Californians spent money at an all time record rate in May, according to estimates prepared by the Bank of California.

Seasonally adjusted, the annual spending rate in May rose to $76.7 million. The total was just one per cent higher than April's rate, but up 2.4 per cent over May, 1964.

All of the increase came in the person spending category, the bank reported. Individuals spent money at an adjusted annual rate of $47 billion, up 4.67 per cent over a year ago.

Business spending was at an $11 billion rate, up 2.8 per cent over April but down 2.72 per cent from a year ago. Government spending rates held constant at $18.7 billion, the same rate as April and as May, 1964.

Helping boost the spending rate was a new record personal income rate for May—rising to an annual rate of $58.8 billion.

State Employment Picture Brighter

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's employment picture took a seasonal turn for the better in April, with 111,000 more workers drawing pay than the month before, the state has reported.

Agriculture supplied more than half the new jobs with unemployment dipping from 6.1 per cent of the total work force in April to 5.7 per cent in May.

That still left 408,000 jobless out of a work force of 7,213,000.

Director of Employment Albert B. Tieburg predicted a big jump in the number of unemployed in June as record numbers of youngsters enter the job force in search of summer jobs.

Sales Conference

Robert W. Shine of Tiburon is attending a four-day sales conference in Coronado, San Diego County, of regional sales leaders of the Paul Revere Life Insurance Co., through tomorrow. He will receive special recognition as a member of the firm's national sales leaders' club.

State's First Printing Paper Mill Dedicated

ANDERSON (AP) — A booming knowledge industry is generating unprecedented demand for paper to print and write on, a major paper-making firm's president said yesterday.

John R. Kimberly, president of Kimberly-Clark Corp., spoke at the dedication of California's first printing paper mill. He said the mill is part of a $50 million lumber, pulp, and paper complex developed by the company in Northern California.

Kimberly predicted that the West's printing and publishing industry—now third behind New York and Illinois — would show substantial growth.

It will be stimulated, he said by California's leadership in population, education, and a concentration of science and industry.

Kimberly said the so-called knowledge industry is growing twice as fast as the total U.S. economy and now accounts for 30 per cent of the gross national product.

California's public school system demonstrates the region's demand for printed knowledge with a requirement for 10 million textbooks representing 6 billion pages, he said.

The new Anderson mill will have an initial annual capacity of 64,000 tons of coated printing or publication paper. Kimberly said his firm started developing its California pulp and paper complex five years ago in anticipation of greater self-sufficiency in the West for its growing paper demand.

The Anderson mill is designed so its production capacity can be doubled.

Kimberly said the Anderson plant will use as raw material lumber mill scrap previously burned as waste.

It includes a $2 million water purifying system that absorbs 11 million gallons of well water daily. The water is thoroughly cleaned of chemicals and solids before flowing into the Sacramento River, he said.

Kimberly-Clark currently employs 1,000 people in Northern California with an annual payroll of $7.5 million.

Footwear Store To Open Branch

The Sandal, Inc., Sausalito footwear store, will open a branch store Saturday in the Strawberry Town and Country Village shopping center at the Tiburon offramp on Highway 101.

The store will be open seven days a week, from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. except Sunday, when hours will be noon to 5:30 p.m. The same lines of footwear as have been offered for the past nine years in the Sandal's Sausalito store on Bridgeway, will be featured at the new store, according to owner Joyce Curry.

She and Bob Boyd of the Sausalito outlet will be on hand for Saturday's opening festivities at the Strawberry shop.

State Bank Gain At $1.7 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — California's 90 national banks had assets of $26,120,000,000 at the end of 1964, the Comptroller of the Currency has reported.

This represented an increase of $1,672,000,000 in a year.

Total deposits were $23,459,000,000 against $21,826,000,000 a year earlier.

The nation's 4,773 national banks had assets of $190.1 billion and deposits of $169.6 billion.

Silver Mines Output Hike Is Predicted

WASHINGTON (AP) A mining industry spokesman predicted today that world silver production will increase by at least 18 per cent in the next three years.

Robert M. Hardy Jr., of Santa Barbara, Calif., testified as chairman of the American Mining Congress Silver Committee at a House interior subcommittee hearing on silver shortages.

Mining projects under way will increase silver production by 1968 to about 254,325,000 ounces — 38,340,000 ounces over the 215,985,000 ounces mined in 1963, Hardy said.

James M. Owens, director of the Office of Metals and Minerals in the Commerce Department said U.S. industrial requirements this year are estimated at 135 million ounces, exceeding the net new supply by about 104 million ounces.

AFL Grants Franchise To Atlanta; In Moves NFL

OCEANPORT, N.J. (AP)—The American Football League's decision to tap Atlanta for a 1966 franchise, combined with the late night ride of Pete Rozelle, has pushed the two professional leagues off the brink and over the precipice into a no-holds-barred expansion war.

While the AFL, in Oceanport, N.J., was awarding a franchise to Atlanta yesterday, National League Commissioner Rozelle was in the Southern city, waving the NFL flag while stating, "Atlanta is a prime prospect for NFL expansion. We could expand with no trouble in 1966. We have discussed this."

Then, suddenly, the emphasis shifted to the Cox Broadcasting Co., which had been awarded the AFL's Atlanta franchise for $7.5 million—the largest price ever paid for a pro football team. The awarding of the franchise, however, rests with the broadcasting company getting a suitable playing field.

That threw the ball to the Atlanta Stadium Authority, which has a new $25 million stadium for the use of the incoming Milwaukee Braves and apparently only one pro football team.

The authority, which met with both the Cox group and Rozelle, said it would wait until July 1 before making any announcement but that the stadium would be rented "effective for the 1966 season, in either football league."

The key word appeared to be either—which seemed to preclude both.

Back to the Cox group, which issued a statement saying that their offer "also contained a time limit which would expire well in advance of the July 1 deadline. Therefore, they have taken the entire matter up for reconsideration. We are studying this matter. There has been no withdrawal."

A lateral to Foss, who said the matter of the stadium was an issue to be resolved between the stadium authority and the Cox group. But the commissioner did admit that the AFL franchise had been awarded contingent upon the Cox group having a suitable stadium.

That, at present, they do not have.

Earlier, Foss had been asked where the Atlanta team would play and answered unhesitatingly: "They will play in the new stadium. Cox gave us reasonable assurance they could get the stadium. If they couldn't, we would have to cross that bridge when we get there."

Rozelle, however, seemed to be forcing them to the bridge rapidly.

Last week he recommended that the NFL expand from 14 teams to 16 teams for the 1967 season. But Monday night, possibly apprehensive about the AFL moving into the television-rich Atlanta territory, Rozelle hopped a plane to atlanta to plant the NFL flag.

And the stadium, which had seemed available to the AFL, was up for grabs.

The stadium authority, after meeting with Rozelle and the Cox group, left the decision hanging by issuing this statement:

"It is not up to use to choose among responsible owners holding franchises for 1966. A committee has been appointed to negotiate with any other applicants. July 1 is the deadline."

And so it stands.

The AFL, meanwhile, had established the $7.5 million price on the Atlanta franchise and the 32 players which the team would be able to pick from the eight existing franchises.

The price topped what Dan Reeves paid for the Los Angeles Rams of the NFL when he bought the club in 1962. At that time, the value of the club was placed at $7.1 million.

Injuries Haunting Giants; Rookie Pitcher Deserves Another Look

CONNOLLY

"It goes that way for awhile, then gets worse," might be an old wheeze, but it aptly fits the style of play generated lately by the San Francisco Giants. Nothing seems to click for any length of time. Pudgy Herman Franks, rapidly slimming manager of the club, is a nifty jigsaw puzzle expert and better than a green hand at percentage baseball.

"I'll agree the Giants are not clicking but only because of ill health," Herman remarks. "And I don't mean maybe.

"Willie Mays, suffering misery from a virus attack, has stood by his guns and played or pinch hit, whenever urged.

"JUAN MARICHAL, with an allergy, puffed and wheezed himself almost to the point of exhaustion, but rallied and kept fighting back until he made it against the Reds in that 1 to 0 affair.

"Name any player you want who isn't playing up to his potential and you find he is misery soaked."

The Giant skipper dislikes questions about individual players. He thinks managers should be spared that embarassment. To prove his philosophy, Herman refused to discuss the playing of Jose Pagan until he was traded off to Pittsburgh. Then he let go at Pagan with both barrels.

This year, to all appearances, looks like one of those hectic seasons that bob up every so often. If the Dodgers can be contained, the seven club race might go right along to the windup.

PITTSBURGH, after looking terrible, started a 10-game winning streak and all was forgiven.

Houston went 14 straight before they fell back, so if the Giants could get started and take five or six of the games in the next week against the Mets and Pirates, the S.F. aggregation would waltz into the L.A. series with a big chance of dethroning the Dodgers.

A long range look at rookie pitcher Bill Hands, late of Tacoma, commands close scrutiny. He won 8 in a row by pitching every fourth day and then when recalled sat on the bench for 10 days before seeing action. Had Willie Mays hung onto the long fly ball last Sunday, Hands would have escaped with one run being scored against him in that fateful third inning. Willie hit the wall and the ball popped loose and it meant curtains for Hands. He was lifted.

BEFORE HANDS arrived, the Giant pitchers were rounding into good shape and for that reason he was kept under wraps. But when he was called on he wasn't as impressive as the Giants would have liked him to be. But the kid deserves another crack before they start arranging transportation for him back to Tacoma.

Somehow Giant pitching coaches and Franks seemed to have made too hasty a summary of Hands' worth last spring. The kid, long, lean and lanky, was measured not on what he might do but what he did against minor league hitters. That's bad computing.

June 15 is the final date for trading. As the date approaches one wonders which other teams have players the Giants could use, without chucking the franchise.

AS OF NOW the Giants have no outstanding players they can afford to include in any deal that might strengthen their pitching. About the only fellows possible for trading are Matty Alou in the outfield and possibly Ron Herbel, young pitcher who is establishing himself strictly as an in-and-outer. Cappy Peterson is safe from a shift at this date, anyhow.

Clubs that might be interested in these men have nothing the Giants could use so it is a stand-off that may result in no deals being made at all.

SAFE BY A HAIR—New York Mets first baseman Ed Kranepool tries to tag out Willie Mays on a pickoff play during the third inning yesterday but the Giants centerfielder gets back just in time. Umpire Bill Williams says "safe" and Giants coach Cookie Lavagetto watches the action. Mays drove in the two Giant runs with a first inning double and fans are now wondering if that snapped his slump. (UPI Telephoto)

IS MAYS OUT OF SLUMP?

Perry To Start Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — The San Francisco Giants, hopefully eyeing renewed batting power in slumping Willie Mays, take on the New York Mets tonight in the second of a three - game series.

After a game-winning two-run double yesterday, Mays faces the Mets' probable starter Jack Fisher (5-4) seeking to end such barren streaks as the one just past. He had been hitless in 18 times at bat.

Gaylord Perry (5-4) is expected to take the mound for the Giants.

Mays cracked a two-run double in the first frame yesterday and the Giants held off the Mets 2-1. The ball bounded off the left-center field fence scoring Dick Schofield and Jesus Alou.

San Francisco relief pitcher Frank Linzy, who took over in the seventh inning for winner Bob Shaw (5-3), had to work out of a bases-loaded jam in the ninth to preserve the victory.

Swoboda tallied his 12th homer of the year in the fifth on a leadoff blast off Shaw. He is a Met rookie.

The Giants were outhit 9-4, but they relied on clutch defense to quell Mets scoring threats. San Francisco stranded seven opposing base runners. A second-inning double play was the first for the Westerners since May 29.

Linzy added his fourth save of the season to a total which now stands at eight for the entire Giant pitching staff. He whittled his earned run average down to 1.42.

Americans Advance In British Golf

PORTHCAWL, Wales (AP) — Billy Hyndman and Bob Gardner carried America's highest hopes into the fourth round of the British Amateur Golf Championship today after a pair of magnificent third round victories.

Hyndman, 49-year-old Philadelphia insurance man, defeated Colin Strachan, a 22-year-old Scot, 1-up with a tremendous eagle three at the 17th hole. Gardner, a broker from Essex Fells, N.J., routed Mike Barker of England 6 and 5.

Advancing with them were two Rochester, N.Y., golfers who pulled off upsets, Jim Campbell and John Thornton; veteran Jack Penrose of Philadelphia and John Miles of New York.

Hyndman and Gardner both have represented the United States in Walker Cup play. Hyndman was runner-up in the British Amateur in 1959 and Gardner was 1960 runner-up in the U.S. Amateur.

Hyndman beat Strachan with one great shot on the 510-yard 17th hole. He sent a three wood sailing over a bunker within six feet of the cup then holed the putt for an eagle three. Strachan took a par five.

The 44-year-old Gardner lost only one hole as he matched par for 12 holes on the 6,700-yard, par 36-36—72 Royal Porthcawl links.

Campbell, a 32-year-old insurance man who says he's only a weekend golfer, defeated David Marsh, the current English champion and a member of Britain's Walker Cup team, 3 and 1. Thornton, 46, turned back another British Walker Cupper, David Sheahan of Ireland, 2 and 1.

Penrose easily beat Tony Howard of England 5 and 4, while Miles gained a 2 and 1 victory over Robert Kuntz of Larchmont, N.Y., in a match between two members of the Winged Foot Club at Mamaroneck, N.Y.

WHITE EVEN FLOATED AT TRACK MEET

Army track Coach Carleton Crowell recalled yesterday that in the 1952 meet, Army needed a victory by White in the 440-yard dash to clinch a victory. White came in first but was disqualified by the judges, who said he had leaped into the air at the tape.

Crowell added that White then came back in the mile relay and helped Army win, to clinch the meet.

Gallagher Surprised To Be No. Giant Pick

DALY CITY, Calif. (AP) — "I wasn't exactly surprised at the Giants drafting me," said 19-year-old Alan Gallagher, third baseman who was the San Francisco Giants number one choice in the first free agent draft in professional baseball.

"I played three seasons for their team in the Peninsula Rookie League," said Gallagher, a University of Santa Clara sophomore.

"But I was rather surprised that they drafted me first."

The Giants also picked a Santa Clara teammate, lefty Rich Robertson, for their Double-A club at Springfield in the Eastern League.

Gallagher, who played prep baseball with Mission High School, led the California Interscollegiate league this spring by hitting .395 including 60 hits in 152 times at bat. He accounted for 42 runs and hit 10 homers.

Robertson, 6-3 and 200 pounds, had a pitching record of 11-5 and an ERA of 2.33. He fanned 132 batters in 115 innings while surrendering only 37 walks.

Gallagher said he expects to sign on terms to suit him — "around $50,000 and the rest of my college education."

Russ Win In Wrestling

TAMPERE, Finland (AP) — There is one area of sports where the United States has a large gap to make up to catch the Russians. That is Greco-Roman wrestling.

This fact was re-emphasized here last night when tuggers from the Soviet Union walked off with seven of the eight titles in World Championships, while the Yanks watched from the sidelines.

WOODESHICK COMMITS FATAL BALK

Pirates Top Houston; Dodgers Nip Phillies

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Houston's Hal Woodeshick, who used to be National League's safest late inning risk this side of Al McBean, has become accident prone.

The Astros' southpaw relief specialist, who led NL pitchers with 22 saves last year and was a close second to Pittsburgh's McBean for Fireman of the Year laurels, handed the streaking Pirates a 7-6 victory last night by committing a two-out, bases-loaded balk in the 11th inning.

It was Pittsburgh's fourth straight victory and 16th in the last 18 starts, vaulting the Pirates back into the first division for the first time since April 25.

The Astros, meanwhile, dropped their ninth extra-inning decision and 12th one-run game of the season. Woodeshick has been the villain in the last three one-run losses.

The 33-year-old veteran, who allowed only three home runs in 61 appearances last season, relieved against Milwaukee a week ago and blew a 1-0 lead by serving successive eighth-inning home run balls to Hank Aaron and Mack Jones.

Four days later Woodeshick got the call in a 1-1 game against the Cardinals and gave up a two-run homer to Phil Gagliano. He escaped the loss when the Astros tied the score before bowing 4-3 in 12 innings.

Woodeshick checked a Pittsburgh rally in the ninth last night and pitched out of a jam in the 10th before failing in the 11th.

Singles by Manny Mota and Bill Virdon and a walk to Roberto Clemente loaded the bases with one out. Andre Rodgers bounced to the mound but Woodeshick slipped fielding the ball and had to settle for a force at the plate. Then, with Donn Clendenon at bat, Woodeshick balked and Virdon trotted home with the winning run.

The first-place Los Angeles Dodgers nipped Philadelphia 2-1 on Maury Wills' run-scoring single in the ninth; Cincinnati edged St. Louis 5-4 on successive sixth inning homers by Leo Cardenas and pinch hitter Art Shamsky and a two-run double by slump-ridden Willie Mays carried San Francisco past the New York Mets 2-1 in other NL night games.

Milwaukee exploded four homers in the 10th inning for an 8-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs in an afternoon game.

Lou Johnson opened the Dodgers' ninth with a single, moved around on a sacrifice and ground out and scored on Wills' hit, capping an LA comeback against Jim Bunning. The Philadelphia right-hander had a 1-0 lead until the eighth, when Wally Moon's run-scoring single tied it.

Cardenas, with one on, and Shamsky connected off St. Louis ace Bob Gibson, who has lost four in a row after winning his first eight decisions. The homers wiped out a 4-2 deficit and reliever Joe Nuxhall held the Cardinals hitless the rest of the way.

Joe Torre's pinch hit homer broke a 2-2 tie in the 10th inning at Chicago and, before the side went out, Felipe Alou, Gene Oliver and Aaron had blasted homers.

Sam Snead, At 53, To Try, Try Again

Sam thinks he can — and there's not a man swinging a club who dares say he cannot.

"All I need is a good start," the astounding slammer from White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., drawled after firing rounds of 67-70 for 137 over the par 71 Birmingham, Mich., Country Club yesterday that qualified him for his 25th shot at the Open title.

Snead, who has won more than 100 PGA tournaments and the last as late as this past spring, scoffs at the suggestion that the Open has him jinxed.

"It's just like any other tournament — there are 18 holes and the same players," Sam said. "I have quit tensing up. It doesn't scare me. If I can get a good start and get my confidence going, I think I can do all right.

"I'm playing as well as I ever did. It's just the putting that gets me."

The 65th Open is scheduled June 17-20 over the Bellerive Country Club course in St. Louis. Thirty-one players, including defending champion Ken Venturi and such stars as Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Bobby Nichols and Gary Player, were exempt from qualifying.

One hundred and 19 players had to earn entry into the tournament field in a scramble involving 459. One of these was Snead, who has won three Masters, three PGAs, the British Open but never the U.S. Open although he was four times a runner-up.

Snead's 137 was just one shot shy of the low qualifying figure during the two days of sectional tests. Leaders with 136 were Deane Beman of Bethesda, Md., twice the National Amateur champion who led the list at Chevy Chase, Md.; Howie Johnson of Palm Springs, Calif., who beat out Snead at Birmingham; Charles Coody of Perrytown, Tex., who paced the 106-man field at Cleveland, and Duff Lawrence of Columbus, Ohio, leader in Monday's trials. All had 68-68—136.

The list of those who failed to make the grade was almost as imposing as of those who did.

Failures included two-time winner Dr. Cary Middlecoff, former Open champions Tommy Bolt, Lew Worsham and Tony Manero and ex-PGA kings Jerry Barber Doug Ford, Vic Ghezzi, Walter Burkemo and Jim Turnesa.

The tempestuous Bolt walked off the course after playing 13 holes at Birmingham, Mich. That's where Middlecoff, once the best of the pros, skied to a 149.

Worsham — known as "The Chin" — missed out at Chevy Chase, firing 153 when it took 144 to qualify.

It is a bit of irony that it was Worsham who beat Snead for the 1947 title the last time the tournament was played in St. Louis. Snead blew a 31-inch putt on the final hole of the playoff — another of his many disappointments.

Can Sam atone in 1965?

Ohio State, Arizona In Feature Tilt

OMAHA (AP) — Top ranked Arizona State and No. 2-ranked Ohio State, only perfect-record teams left in the 19th College World Series, will collide tonight.

Arizona State belted St. Louis 13-3 and Ohio State bombed Washington State 14-1, tying the Series record of three home runs. Florida State eliminated Texas 3-2 in 12 innings and unheralded Connecticut ousted Lafayette 6-4 in other second round games yesterday.

Ohio State ace Steve Arlin pitched an opening 2-1 victory Monday over Florida State, however, so Coach Marty Karow must go with either Ron Kitchon or Dave Singerman, both right-handers.

WITH A HITTING PITCHER

White Sox Whip Boston

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Staging a revolution from the right, Joe Horlen has begun phase two in his attempt to overthrow lefty Gary Peters as strong man of the Chicago White Sox pitching staff.

Horlen pushed Peters closer to the brink last night, continuing his masterful pitching while adding a potent offensive weapon in Chicago's 7-2 victory over Boston.

The 27-year-old right-hander ignited his operation last season in taking the team lead in earned run average away from Peters. He hasn't let up at all this year and now is threatening to surpass Peters as the team's best hitting hurler.

Horlen collected three singles, the second driving in a sixth-inning run that snapped a 2-2 deadlock and put the White Sox ahead to stay. The performance shot Horlen's batting average to .250 compared with .138 for Peters, who often has been used as a pinch hitter.

His four-hit pitching, meanwhile, brought Horlen his sixth triumph, most on the team, against three defeats. His earned run average of 1.93 is Chicago's best as well as being among the best in the American League.

Peters, now 4-4 with a 3.81 ERA, won 20 games to 13 for Horlen last season, but the right-hander's ERA of 1.88 was the lowest for the White Sox in 35 years and second only to Dean Chance's 1.65 in the AL. Peters' ERA last year was 2.50.

Against the Red Sox, Horlen allowed two hits in the second inning, one of them Lee Thomas' 11th homer, and two more in the third, then retired the final 19 batters he faced. He didn't walk anyone and now is averaging less than one walk per game.

In other AL contests, Minnesota stopped Cleveland's five-game winning streak 6-2, Kansas City ended New York's four-game string 3-2, Los Angeles trimmed Detroit 3-1 and Washington blanked Baltimore 2-0.

The White Sox snapped the 2-2 tie after Ron Hansen reached second base on shortstop Rico Petrocelli's double error. Hansen eventually reached third and scored as Horlen ripped a single to center field.

Unbeaten Camilo Pascual won his eighth game after surviving Cleveland home runs by Rocky Colavito and Max Alvis. The Twins socked a pair of their own homers, Harmon Killebrew with two on in the first inning and Earl Battey with one aboard in the fourth.

John O'Donoghue brought his record to 3-7 with a three-hitter against the Yankees. He held New York hitless until the fifth inning when Clete Boyer tripled home two runs. The Athletics won it in the sixth on a bases-loaded single by Ed Charles.

Fred Newman turned in another outstanding pitching performance, holding Detroit to four hits and increasing his record to 7-3. The Angels broke a 1-1 deadlock with two sixth-inning runs as Willie Smith tripled in one and scored the other on Joe Adcock's single.

Washington handed Baltimore its second straight shutout as Pete Richert and Ron Kline combined for a four-hitter. Frank Howard drove in a run with a triple in the fifth inning, then scored on Doug Camilli's single.

Assault Trial Set For Rouse

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Roger Rouse, California state light heavyweight boxing champion, will be tried July 14 on a felony assault charge in Santa Clara County Superior Court.

Rouse is accused of the April 9 beating of Mrs. Hazel Irene Gustafson, 26, of Los Gatos, Calif. She suffered a broken nose and jaw, a concussion and a head wound that required seven stiches.

Rouse had known Mrs. Gustafson for two years.

Gene Brito Loses His Fight With Paralysis

DUARTE, Calif. (AP)—A former professional football star's four-year fight against paralysis ended yesterday with the death of Gene Brito, 39.

Brito, who starred with the Washington Redskins and Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League, died of a respiratory failure while a patient here at the City of Hope Medical Center.

The 10-year NFL veteran was stricken during the Rams' 1961 pre-season exhibition schedule and was hospitalized several times during his illness.

Former Vice President Richard Nixon, a friend who once spoke at a dinner for Brito, said:

"His example of courage, determination and spirit in the face of overwhelming odds, both on the football field and in his last great battle for life, will be a lasting memorial to one of America's truly great athletes."

The 6-2, 235-pound defensive end starred at Loyola of Los Angeles before entering the NFL with the Redskins. He played seven seasons in Washington and was traded to the Rams in 1958.

Former Ram co-captain Les Richter said, "This is a sad thing. The sports world has lost a great champion."

Brito's feats were sufficiently outstanding to get him named to five All-Pro teams, and he was voted the top player in the 1956 Pro Bowl contest.

His widow, June, and two daughters, Michelle, 7, and Sharon, 4, survive.

Funeral services will be held Friday in Rose Hills Memorial Park, Whittier.

Peninsula Turning Out Championship Swimmers

By JOE SARGIS

MENLO PARK (UPI) — They are turning out top swimmers in this affluent San Francisco suburban area faster than the nation can use them, and Bob Gaughran, one of the young coaches smack in the middle of the production line, says there is not end in sight.

High income, an abundance of pools, close proximity to San Francisco Bay and the Pacific Ocean, countless lakes and favorable year - round weather conditions, Gaughran claims, are responsible for the endless flow of swimmers being churned out at three area high schools and the world famed Santa Clara Swim Club.

He could throw in excellent coaching and the picture would be complete, but the modest 30-year-old Gaughran (who pronounces his name as if it were spelled Goren) doesn't have to. The facts speak for themselves.

Between Gaughran, whose Menlo - Atherton dual meet team recently claimed the national high school championship, Paul Bataille of Palo Alto High and George Haines, who coaches both the Santa Clara High school and Santa Clara Swim Club teams, the United States on practically a moment's notice could present a team of teen - age swimmers comparable to the best in the world of any age.

That's not as far fetched as it sounds. Only nine months ago at Tokyo, many of their products startled Olympic officials, sports writers and visitors alike by setting six world records, including a sweep of the relays, while winning 24 of a possible 39 medals (eight gold, eight silver and eight bronze.)

Don Schollander, named "man of the games" for winning four gold medals, is one of the 38-year-old Haines' all-time great products. But he wasn't the only Olympic hero with a touch of the local coaching brigade. The list sounds like a rundown of the 1964 American squad — Donna DeVarona, Dick Roth, Steve Clark, Cary Illman, Claudia Kolb, Pokey Watson etc.

None are so old that they couldn't make it to the Mexico Olympics in 1968, but in case there is a faltering anywhere along the line between now and then, a long line of youngsters churning on their heels are ready to move up.

REVIEW OF PREP LEAGUE

Redwood Boasts Marin's Best Athletic Records

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The curtain has dropped on he 1964-65 sports year in the Marin Athletic League, with the first sport of the year providing most of the thrills.

That, of course, was football.

The 1964 football season can't be challenged as the highlight of the sports year. It went down to the wire with two undefeated teams meeting for the championship on the last game of the year. And then on Nov. 21, 7,400 fans crammed into the Kentfield stadium to witness one of the best shows in MCAL history as Drake whipped Terra Linda 35-18.

Both teams had won eight games going into that championship game and people who hadn't seen a high school grid game for years "just had to see this one." That was familiar talk during the week before the game.

Terra Linda owned the first half of the game, leaving the field at intermission with an 18-7 lead. But then a powerful Drake team rolled up four touchdowns in the second half while holding the Trojans scoreless. As many observers said, "It was like watching two games."

Next was basketball and it lacked the excitement of the grid race in that Redwood clinched the championship with still four more games to play. But it was Redwood's first championship of the year that was to see three other Giants teams—baseball, golf and tennis—also win MCAL titles.

After Redwood's cagers won the league with an 11-1 record, it promptly suffered the fate that usually goes to the Marin cage champ. The Giants had to go into the Tournament of Champions in Berkeley and they quickly got knocked out of the classic after losing their first two games.

When it came time for two minor sports, wrestling and cross country running, the Indians of Tamalpais High School were waiting in the corner. They won championships in both sports.

Spring sports, properly tabbed as "prep panic" by sportswriters who cover five sports simultaneously, completed their 1965 run with Redwood winning titles in three of the five.

The Giants compiled a 10-2 league record to wrap up the baseball title before the season ended, with Terra Linda taking second place. Prior to the start of the season, many close followers of prep diamond acion said it would be a race between those two teams. That was true, but basketball coaches said the basketball race would also be close and that, my friend, was as true as you-know-what freezing over.

Track and field provided the closest chase for the pennant of all spring sports. San Rafael and Drake were undefeated when they met each other, and when their dual meet was over, they still were undefeated. Down to the half point, the Bulldogs and Pirates tied their meet and had to settle for a tie for championship honors.

San Rafael High School varsity swimmers completed their third straight season undefeated to easily nab the title this year. As far as swimming is concerned, San Rafael is to the MCAL as Santa Clara Swim Club is to the Peninsula. And that's a mighty proud equation to hold.

Redwood's tennis team went through 10 straight league matches undefeated to win the net title, and the golfers from Redwood edged Tamalpais in final standings to win the honors from the fairway circuit.

All in all, it was a banner year for Redwood High. Coaches' motto at the Larkspur school is "home of the champs," and this year that statement can't be disputed.

To illustrate this, a chart has been drawn up showing the finish in all varsity sports by the MCAL schools. When a school wins the championship of a sport, it is awarded one point. Second place gets 2, third, 3, etc. In case of ties, points are split (if two teams tie for second, points for second and third are added and then split between the two schools). Teams that don't participate in a particular sport are given 8 points for that sport.

According to the totals, Redwood is the year's champ with 21½ points, a wide 8-point margin over second place San Rafael. It was close for the next spots, Tam with 33½, Drake with 34½ and Terra Linda with 36. Marin Catholic, which doesn't participate in four of the Marin Athletic League sports, is last with 61½ points.

Sausalito TV Pole Cables Are Proposed

Bob's TV Service of San Rafael is proposing to the Sausalito City Council that community television antenna systems—now all underground — be placed overhead on utility poles.

Reason for the proposal, according to owner Robert D. Lewis, is to reduce price and to bring in, by relay, Channel 12 from Chico.

The city council has set July 6 to discuss the subject of setting standards for television antenna service.

Three companies provide coaxial cable service to Sausalito: Sausalito Community System of Sausalito, which has about 800 customers; Martin's Community Antenna System, Sausalito, about 400, and Bob's TV Service, 15.

The present underground service, installed about 10 years ago, carries five channels. Bob's TV Service, said Lewis, charges a $135 hookup charge and a $4 monthly charge for the first set. Under the new overhead system, a hookup would be $25 and monthly rate $3.50 per set. Ten channels could be provided.

Trying to carry 10 channels on the old type cable "borders on impossibility," said Lewis. He said a new type of underground cable could take 10 channels but would require tearing up the street for installation.

Lewis said he would agree to placing the lines underground for all new subdivisions as well as when utility lines now overhead are put underground.

Youth Held In Burglary Case

Arrest of Benjamin Alan Chaney, 18, of Petaluma, for investigation of burglary of a new apartment project in Alto north of Sabella's Restaurant, was reported by sheriff's officers yesterday.

Deputies said they spotted an automobile's headlights near the apartments late Sunday and investigated. Chaney had a large amount of lighting fixtures in the rear of his car, they reported.

He was free on $1,100 bail today, scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon.

BRANDIED PEACH SHORTCAKE

A Festive Version Of Peach Shortcake

You'll find the Hales, Faye Elbertas' and Rio Oso varieties particularly good for slicing. These are all freestone varieties and have the delicate sweet flavor you enjoy in dessert dishes.

For a special occasion, or to dress up your family dinner at home, try this festive version of peach shortcake.

BRANDIED PEACH SHORTCAKE

- 6 cups fresh sliced California peaches
- 2 tablespoons honey
- ⅓ cup sugar
- ¼ cup peach brandy
- 1 recipe drop biscuit shortcakes
- Soft butter or margarine
- 1 cup (½ pint) whipping cream, whipped

Combine sliced fresh California peaches with honey, sugar and peach brandy. Chill while preparing Drop Biscuit Shortcakes. When baked, split hot biscuits and spread with butter or margarine. Spoon peaches between biscuits with some of the whipped cream. Top with additional peaches and garnish with remaining whipped cream. Makes 6-8 servings.

DROP BISCUIT SHORTCAKES

- 2 cups biscuit mix
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon or orange rind (optional)
- ¾ cup milk

Combine biscuit mix with sugar and rind. Add milk all at once and beat with fork until dough is well blended. Drop dough in 6-8 three inch mounds, on greased sheet. Bake at 450 degrees, 10-15 minutes, until golden brown.

TANGY DRESSING

Avant Garde Avocado Salad Welcomes Summer Season

Welcome summer, the salad season, to your home by serving flavorful supper salads. One salad that is sure to be a treat for your family and for you, too, because it is easy to prepare, is Avant Garde Avocados.

REMEMBER to sprinkle the avocado cubes and shell with lemon juice to prevent discoloration of the fruit.

AVANT GARDE AVOCADOS

(Serves 4)

- 1 can crab meat, flaked and boned
- 1 can water chestnuts, sliced
- 2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
- ¼ cup chopped ripe olives
- ¼ cup cashews
- 2 ripe avocados
- lemon juice

Cut avocados in half and remove seeds.

Scoop out meat from avocados, dice it and sprinkle the meat and the shells with lemon juice. Mix the chopped avocados with the rest of the ingredients. Pile high into avocado shells. Top with blue cheese dressing.

DRESSING

(Makes 1¼ Cups)

- 1 cup dairy sour cream
- ½ cup crumbled American blue cheese (about 3 ounces)
- dash of Worcestershire sauce
- dash of cayenne
- pinch of sugar
- pineapple-grapefruit juice

Blend sour cream with ¼ cup of crumbled American blue cheese. Beat until smooth. Add Worcestershire sauce, cayenne, sugar and enough juice to thin the dressing. Stir in the remaining blue cheese. Refrigerate. Serve on top of avocado salads.

Barbecue Links

Barbecued ground beef may be extended easily if you add some sliced frankfurters or smoked pork sausage links to the mixture just long enough to heat through. Youngsters will also enjoy this variety note.

Delicious Summer Dessert For Kids

A refreshing, nutritious dessert for summer's active children.

- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
- ¼ cup lemon juice
- 2 egg whites

Stir together the farina, ¼ cup of the sugar and the salt. Slowly sprinkle into boiling water in a saucepan. Cook and stir constantly over medium heat until thickened and smooth. Stir in butter, lemon rind and juice. Beat egg whites until they hold stiff straight peaks; gradually beat in remaining ¼ cup sugar; continue to beat, if necessary, until extremely stiff; fold into farina mixture. Pour individual molds rinsed with cold water. Chill. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Tangy Nectarine Slices Mold Well In Light Summer Salads

Salad molds are about as refreshing as anything you can serve when the thermometer starts to soar. "Summer Nectarine Molds" are practically certain to win over lagging appetites.

MAKE these molds early in the day for eating enjoyment at lunch or dinner. They are a shimmering combination of sliced and diced fresh nectarines, shredded cabbage and chopped green pepper, mint and onion chilled in lemon gelatin.

FRESH NECTARINES from California are abundant in markets now. They are delicious simply eaten out-of-hand any time of day. But they also add to the attractiveness and flavor of many salads, appetizers, hot meat sauces and desserts. There's no need to peel this red-and-gold-skinned fruit because it is fuzz-free. That is one reason nectarines are so popular with busy homemakers who are too rushed to peel fresh fruit but want to include it in the menu.

SUMMER NECTARINE MOLDS

- 3 or 4 medium-sized fresh nectarines
- 1 package (3 oz.) lemon gelatin
- 1 cup boiling water
- ¾ cup cold water
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
- 2 teaspoons finely chopped mint
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup shredded cabbage
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper
- Romaine tips

Slice nectarines. Dissolve gelatin in boiling water; stir in cold water, vinegar, onion, mint and salt. Cool until mixture mounds on spoon. Arrange nectarine slices vertically around sides of 6 individual molds. Dice remaining nectarines and stir into gelatin mixture with cabbage and green pepper. Spoon into molds. Chill until firm. Unmold onto romaine tips arranged on serving plate; garnish with mint sprigs and nectarine slices if desired.

Makes 6 servings.

An Appetizer For Company

Stuffed Celery Rolls
Cold Meat Platter Cheese Plate
Cooked Vegetable Salad
Meringue Torte with Fruit

STUFFED CELERY

- 2 bunches celery
- 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese, soft
- 1 wedge (3 ounces) Roquefort cheese, crumbled
- Heavy cream
- 2 tablespoons each minced fresh dill and chives
- 1 teaspoon caraway seeds
- Salt and paprika

Trim celery; cut ribs into 3-inch pieces; wash, drain and dry with toweling. Beat together the cheese; beat in just enough heavy cream to make the consistancy of very stiff whipped cream. Fold in dill, chives and caraway; add salt to taste. Spoon into celery cavities; sprinkle with paprika; chill. For an elegant touch, fill celery by pressing the cheese mixture through a pastry bag with a large star tip. Makes 10 to 12 appetizer servings.

NOTE: The 3 ounces of Roquefort called for will be ¾ cup crumbled or ⅓ cup packed.

Marin Soprano Jane Marsh Will Sing The Leading Role

By MOLLY MARIN

Dramatic soprano Jane Marsh, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Earle Marsh of Mill Valley who has made spectacular progress since she started her vocal studies, has achieved another distinction.

SHE WILL sing the leading role of Desdemona in Verdi's opera "Othello." In the opening event on June 24 in the "Festival of Two Worlds" in Spoleto, Italy.

She was selected in auditions heard by Thomas Schippers, who will direct and conduct the opera, in New York, where she has been continuing her study of voice since her graduation from Oberlin College. She has been in Spoleto rehearsing since May 19.

Today her mother and paternal grandmother, Mrs. Earle Marsh of San Francisco, are flying to Copenhagen. They will visit London, Paris and Rome before going to Spoleto several days before June 24.

ON JUNE 15, Dr. Marsh leaves for Helsinki, Finland, to attend the meeting of the International College of Surgeons, and he will join his wife and mother in Rome and go with them to Spoleto.

They will return about July 25.

ON A TOUR of the East Coast are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tufts and their children, Madge, James and Nancy of Kent Woodlands. The family flew to New York and will travel by car to Boston, Montreal, Philadelphia and Washington, D. C.

COL. AND MRS. STANDISH GREEN of Corte Madera are anticipating an adventurous year of travel when they leave Marin on June 22 for Dorchester, N. J., where they will board their now 40-foot Newporter ketch. The Greens have sold their home and the Captain, a retired Marine Corps officer, will retire from the American Automobile Assn. Mrs. Green describes the yacht as containing a forward cabin and main stateroom with modern galley and space to sleep six persons. The dinette in the doghouse (aft section) is rasied to afford a wider view for the travelers. The Greens plan to dock at New York City to attend the World's Fair and then head south down the Potomac to Washington, D. C. to see friends. The Captain plans to revisit many of his former posts on their trip along the inland waterway toward Florida, the Bahamas and into the Caribbean. The adventurers plan to travel through the Panama Canal and perhaps sail to Honolulu before returning to Marin. They are the parents of a daughter, Mrs. Peter Bardea of Corte Madera, and a son, Robert, who is stationed at Camp Pendleton, San Diego.

JANE MARSH

In celebration of the 84th birthday of Mrs. Charles Dornbach her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dornbach Jr. entertained at an open house for old friends and a family dinner party at their Belvedere home. The senior Mrs. Dornbach, a native of San Francisco, has returned to the city to live after having shared a home with her cousin, the late Mrs. Stuart Dunbar, in Belvedere for a number of years. Every woman should go to RIVER VALLEY

That's where they'll get what they deserve -- the finest frozen vegetables at budget prices. They'll find everything's a little bit sweeter, a little bit greener (except the corn which is a little more golden). Women who know what's good for them (and their families) are happy to go to RIVER VALLEY.

BOUQUET FOR THE BEACH

A field of gayly scattered wild flowers transforms Catalina's "Love Bug" bikini and "Flowers" Trenchcoat into a bouquet for the beach. The cut of the bikini's bandeau bra with spaghetti straps, and shirred-not too brief-trunks complete this bare . . . but feminine look for '65. Rising to the occasion is the matching trenchcoat . . . the maximum cover-up for minimal swimwear . . . which can also be worn as a topper for sportswear or alone as a coat-dress. In cool comfortable cotton created by Maggy Reese for Catalina both styles are offered in floral print on a white or black ground.

ALERT ANTENNAS

Where Consumers Err Most

EDITOR'S NOTE: There's a lot to learn if you really care about being a good consumer, says the head of the Women's Program, a unique operation of New York's Department of Commerce. Here is her advice for women across the country, from a speech at a consumer conference.

By GUIN HALL
Deputy Commissioner, Woman's Program, Department of Commerce, New York State

The trouble with us consumers is that it's much more fun not to have to think—to shop without a plan, wandering about from store to store, our antennae alert, our pocketbooks ready.

Exhilarating though this experience may be, it often results in purchasing techniques — and purchases—that appall the experts, not to mention the husbands.

Stores tell us they are filled with women who shop for curtains without knowing the size of the windows, for rugs without a color sample to match, for twin beds without knowing whether the room is large enough to hold them.

We carry this haphazard approach into the home, too, according to repairmen who report that a good many calls could have been eliminated if we had just read the instruction booklets first. Sometimes all the machine needed was to be turned on. Maybe that's why an industry desk carries the sign "When all else fails, read the instructions."

WHAT WE MUST DO if we would not be labeled silly shoppers is to know what questions to ask and then to trust somebody — the manufacturer and the store, who have shown by performance that they will back up their claims, who invest in research and extensive testing before offering you a new product.

Where we consumers err most, I am told, is in setting off into the unknown, seeking wild bargains from unfamiliar sources. Only a silly shopper really expects to get something for nothing, yet hundreds of fraudulent businesses flourish because so many of us are silly shoppers.

As shoppers, we are elaborately protected. There are thousands of laws and regulations under which articles are manufactured and sold to us. Just for agricultural products alone there are 1,100 different U.S. grades. And there are pages and pages covering the proper labeling of textiles.

But laws alone will never give us what we want in the marketplace.

If we're to keep up with this fast changing world, we must become better informed.

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS are spent each year by government and business on helpful information for you on how to

Then you can be informed about weights and measures, for example. You can find out how to judge new fabrics, how to use a freezer, how to buy on time, how to buy a home.

The Superintendent of Documents in Washington puts out a bi-weekly list of newly issued or still popular publications for sale. Leaflets, which contain consumer information, cost from five to 40 cents. Free pamphlets are available from various U.S. departments.

Find out what your own state has to offer. Write the Executive Department, or the specific department if you know which handles the information you want.

And what do you know about the Better Business Bureau? Do you know this is one of the many consumer-interest projects sponsored by business? And do you know how to use this organization's services? Not after you've fallen for some get-rich-quick scheme, I hope. For this is not a prosecuting agency. Its purpose is to issue information about and help to eliminate malpractices in business.

THE BUREAUS WHO receive complaints tell us that home improvement is one of most lucrative sources of income for the fraudulent gone-tomorrow salesman. Whether it's aluminum house siding that may never be completed, shingle waterproofing that may not resist anything, or the scare-salesman who "just happened to notice your broken chimney as he passed by," if you don't know them or their companies, check with your local Chamber of Commerce or the Better Business Bureau. And don't sign contracts in a hurry—"a special price if you sign up tonight" some will promise.

Don't sign without reading the fine print. Ask the salesman to leave the contract over night, and consult a lawyer if you have doubts about it.

Let's not be silly shoppers or we may create a silly marketplace.

A LONG, LONG BASIN — Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club members are collecting signatures to petition the County Board of Supervisors to create a "Tot Yacht Club" on Coyote Creek between Flamingo Road and the bay. Water would be entrapped by a tide gate at the Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks to keep water at tide level and a clubhouse is proposed on Tennessee Valley Road in a small cottage. Sea Scouts have offered to teach small boat handling and youngsters would need a swimmer's card to join the club. The channel was recently straightened and improved by the Corps of Engineers. Design is by Edmund C. Heine Jr., Tamalpais Valley architect.

For her record, Greyhound will award Mrs. Stahl a safety award certificate and a brooch.

3 Marines Getting Advanced Training

Three Marin County men are receiving four weeks advanced infantry training at Camp Pendleton, San Diego County, after being graduated from Marine Corps recruit training in San Diego.

They are Pvts. Charles D. Clivio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Clivio, 109 First Street, San Rafael; Paul A. Cheetham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Cheetham, 2175 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, and Daniel L. Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess G. Fisher, 77 Lincoln Avenue, San Anselmo.

Cubans Suffering Cigar Shortage

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Havana cigars, no longer within ready reach of Americans, are reported getting scarcer in Havana, too.

A Cuban radio broadcast monitored in Miami set a production goal of 40,241,500 cigars for domestic consumption and 17,575,500 for export by July 26, 1965, anniversary of Prime Minister Fidel Castro's revolution.

A new Cuban economic research report said 543 million cigars were smoked in Cuba in all of 1958, the year before Castro's take-over. Cigars exported in 1958 totaled 79,378,449.

Test Date Slated For Giant Rocket

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Titan 3C, America's most powerful rocket, is being groomed for a scheduled firing June 17.

Technicians ran through a dress rehearsal yesterday.

The Titan 3C, which generates nearly three million pounds of thrust, is capable of placing 25,000 pounds into orbit. Studies are being made by the Air Force to determine if the payload can be increased to between 30,000 and 40,000 pounds.

Kennedy Family Plans Raft Trip

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and Jim Whittaker, who conquered a Canadian mountain together earlier this year, will make a raft trip down the Salmon River in Idaho, Mrs. Whittaker said yesterday.

She said Kennedy, his wife and their four oldest children will meet the Whittakers and their two sons in Boise, Idaho, June 26.

The two families will proceed to the headwaters of the Salmon and begin a five-day raft journey.

Nazi Party, Klan Linked By FBI Aide

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP)— "There is a close working arrangement between the American Nazi party and the Ku Klux Klan," an FBI agent told a civic club here yesterday.

FBI Agent Neal Welch added that "many members of the Klan are of the rdaical lunatic fringe which would take the law into their own hands."

The Amazon River drains an area five-sixths as large as the United States.

Now Is Hour To Speak On Local Government Tax

Having just barely survived the various tax bites (federal, state and county), most of us are in no mood to think about next year's taxes.

It's far more pleasant to be dreaming of summer vacation—swimming, fishing, and traveling.

But if we are to have any effective voice in determining our taxes for next year, now is the time to tackle the problem head-on.

Various cities and districts are compiling their budgets for next year. The governing boards will be listening to the needs of various departments and deciding where to pare and where to pad.

Decisions made this time of year will determine just how big a tax load you'll be carrying next year.

If you have any strong ideas on where the costs of government should be cut down, or which services require more financial support, now is the time to make your views known.

A few months from now, when the budgets have been firmed up and the tax rates set for the coming year, no amount of screaming will do any good.

Too many of us wait until the tax bills are mailed to us before we start yelling bloody murder. By then, we're a year too late.

If you have been considering offering a few choice words of advice to your city councilmen or your district governing board on how best to utilize your tax money, don't put it off until November.

Take a few hours of your time now, find out when your governing board will be deciding on the budget and tax rate, and voice your objections or approval at these meetings.

A city clerk or a district secretary can tell you when the meetings are scheduled, and how to get yourself on the agenda so that you will be assured of a chance to speak out.

A few, well-placed observations made to proper authorities now might save you hours of useless screaming later on in the tax year.

Quail—Little Kit Carsons?

It must be pure instinct because the young haven't hatched yet. Yet he is overseeing and supervising his brown little lady, calling practice signals of "danger" and "all clear."

These handsome, crested, blue, ground-hugging birds are great favorites and will become quite good friends of people who leave wild bird seed out for them. The father quail is a little Kit Carson peering into the sunset or sunrise for Indians (cats, dogs and people) and sounding the alarm to his charges. The only difference is that instead of yelling, "Make a circle of the wagons," he churrs, "Head for cover." And the remarkable thing is, they do.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

State Withholding Income Tax Disadvantages Outweigh Gains

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Although Gov. Edmund G. Brown even at this late date is continuing to advocate a withholding tax for the payment of the state income tax, the proposal still is finding no support from business throughout the state.

At a conference of tax executives recently in Carmel, F. E. Denniston of Fibreboard Paper Products Corp. declared the disadvantages of the withholding plan "far outweigh the advantages in California."

As quoted in a publication of the California Taxpayers Assn., he declared withholding is unnecessary as a means of increasing state revenue, and pointed out, to counter one of the strong arguments for withholding, that newcomers to California are getting no free ride, as they are required to pay the tax later anyhow.

"THE ADVOCATES of withholding," he said, "point to the extremely appealing argument that withholding will accelerate the payment of taxes by new residents, as though these new arrivals were getting a free ride by paying their tax at a later date.

"The many arguments advanced in favor of withholding merely tend to confuse the fact that the major underlying reason for adopting withholding is to achieve a one-time acceleration in the collection of revenue.

"The real cost to the taxpayers will be the loss of his privilege to be aware of his real tax burden."

In this comment lies almost all of the evil of the withholding tax. Payment of federal taxes through withholding has been made so easy for the citizen on a salary that the point has been reached where this citizen scarcely notices the amounts withheld from his paycheck.

SALARIES generally are discussed on the basis of "take-home" pay, rather than the full amount earned, and the wage-earner has reached the point where he considers "take-home" is the amount he earns.

Thus, the federal government because of withholding has been able to lull the wage-earners of the nation into a false concept of taxes. This concept is the assumption that he earns only what he gets in his paycheck.

Denniston brings out another point as to why withholding should not be applied to the California income tax. This is the effect it would have on the business climate of the state.

It has been estimated that withholding would cost the employers of California upwards of $6 million a year in added costs of operation, an expense for which there would be no return.

"IT CANNOT be denied," Denniston said, "that the employers' increased cost of compliance would be both initial and recurring, and add materially to the cost of doing business in California."

And it should be noted it this point that the added cost will show up somewhere along the line and be paid by the ultimate consumer. Thus, withholding is another administration device to increase the cost of living for California residents.

The California Legislature had an opportunity to vote a withholding tax into law at the regular session in 1963. The proposal, which was made at that time by Governor Brown, was turned down. And it is expected it will be turned down again this session.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Property Tax Ogre Eats Marin Houses

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Bravo on your Editorial cartoon in May 17th's paper

Ain't it the truth? That fat, glutinous, Jolly Green Giant is not only nibbling at the property, but that warped, scheming pea brain of his is dead set on completely gnawing at, and eventually devouring the roots, in fact, the whole family tree!

But . . . there are those of us who don't believe that everybody must live in rented pigeon holes called apartments or condominiums, but who do believe that planting and nurturing the family tree, and making a house a home, is our pursuit of happiness. . . .

The time has come for property owners and the lawmakers, who take an oath to uphold the Constitution of these United States, to not only uphold, cherish and guard this great heritage for the pursuit of happiness for ourselves and our posterity, to stop lallygagging so d—— passively, while our home and family structure are being attacked and will ultimately be devoured completely by this nasty, unreasonably devastating "Beasty." With the sword of justice clutched in our hands, we must go forth and slay this nasty, unreasonable, over-indulgent property tax OGRE!

Give Lawmakers Some More Rope

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The obsessive urge to make new laws that afflicts our national, state, county and city representatives should be recognized for what it is. Like alcoholism and other narcotic addictions, it's a disease.

Referring to the legislatures of the Confederation, Madison, in the 62nd paper of The Federalist, says that "the facility and excess of law-making seem to be the diseases to which our governments are most liable."

Zalencus, the ancient Greek lawgiver, had a wonderful idea. He decreed that any legislator who proposed a new law must appear before the legislative body with a rope around his neck and that, if his bill did not pass, he was to be hanged forthwith.

Talking To God Not That Simple

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re: Don Falkenberg's letter to your paper May 29, the burden of which is to point out that talking to GOD through His word and listening to HIM is not simple, WE AGREE.

If you, dear reader, should open "THE BOOK" that Bruce Barton calls the book that nobody knows, you could read about a man called Peter, who at least once was caught in the net of the father of lies, the line was then broken. But when he went out and wept bitterly . . . it was restored . . . . Praise the Lord.

Now Homo Sapiens, the wise one, has used his wisdom and cleverness to produce paraphernalia so marvelous that it is very easy to destroy himself, hence there is a crying need to restore the line.

The connection depends upon us, here, at the lower end. THE CHIEF of the universe at the upper end is always ready. . . . He is like the father who was always ready to receive his wayward son. . . .

Preservation Urged Of Marincello Site

Editor, Independent-Journal:

You have said that many people who oppose Marincello are against "progress" and would oppose anything at all in that place. That is nearly true—for that valley is within and actually a part of those wonderful, high-rolling hills and rugged coast which are the Headlands of the Golden Gate; and a new city put there could not be more incongruous or destructive. The whole coastal area from the Headlands, on up the ridges to Mt. Tamalpais and beyond, past Bolinas Lagoon and including Muir Woods in one of the valleys, is certainly the most unique and marvelous part of Marin.

There it is now, still green and practically untouched by the bulldozer—and how fortunate we are that nearly all of it is already park land or soon will be. It is almost unbelievable that anyone could now be allowed to transform and destroy the character and beauty of any part of it. Particularly at this moment, when the president is offering the help of the federal government, and is calling on America to save its finest scenic areas.

Selection Questioned For National Flower

Editor, Independent-Journal:

During our present age of artifice, it is to be anticipated, if not desired, that our choice of a national flower should be one that is also artificial. Amen, Chrysanthemum Maximum, "Shasta" Daisy!

It does not appear, however, the "Plant Wizard," Luther Burbank, would be overjoyed with the specimen of bloom you have chosen to photograph (issue of June 2). Indeed, he might wonder, as do many of us, why a choice was not made from among the myriads of wild flowers that California offers, flowers that really belong to California and no part to England.

Also, what of Eschscholtzia? Not spectacular enough? Too simple? I can remember when it formed 20-acre blankets covering the nearby foothills — solid gold blankets.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A JITTERY, pop-eyed patient sought a brand new doctor to tell him, "There's nothing really serious the matter with me, Doc. I'm just dead, that's all." "Dead, eh?" chuckled the doctor. "You're a very interesting case. By the way, I hope you are aware that dead people don't bleed." "Sure," nodded the patient. "Every fool knows that."

With that, the doctor suddenly jabbed a pin into the patient's thumb. A drop of blood promptly appeared. "Well, what do you know," marveled the patient. "Dead people DO bleed, after all!"

THE WIFE of a distinguished Shakespearian scholar planned a birthday cake for him decorated with quotations from the Bard. Unfortunately, it tasted terrible — proving once more that we can't have archaic and eat it, too.

Egypt Thrusts Forward Thanks To Help From U.S., Soviet Union

CAIRO — When President Gamal Abdel Nasser scowls at President Habib Bourguiba of Tunisia because he has publicly smiled at Israel or has a tift with Chancellor Ludwig Erhard or chides us about Viet Nam, these get big headlines —as they should.

But there is another face to the Egyptian story. The UAR is making a considerable thrust forward in economic and social development.

Production is up. Per capita income is up. The annual growth rate of the economy is high—4.5 per cent for several years — and going higher. Health, education and other public services are improving.

Credit for this achievement surely goes in the following order:

TO PRESIDENT Nasser for his decisive and tenacious leadership in rescuing his country from a corrupt and too indolent a past and guiding it, sometimes pulling it, toward modern economic life.

To the Egyptian people, who slowly, often reluctantly, have responded in considerable part to pleas and pressures to work harder, to accept new ways, and to profit from them.

To very large outside economic and technical aid, both from the East and the West—aid which at this point is coming predominantly from the Soviet Union.

Egypt wouldn't be where it is today were it not for U. S., Russian and European aid. But this aid, however crucial, has still been marginal.

The Egyptians have doubled their gross national product in 13 years. The annual growth rate this year is moving up to more than 5.5 per cent.

Egypt now has a minimum wage law, profit-sharing, social security and free education through college. The education budget has more than doubled. Budgets for public health services have quadrupled.

SOME SAID the Egyptians couldn't possibly run the Suez Canal. Yearly income from Suez traffic has gone up from $95 million to $180 million.

Some said, including many in the U. S., that the Egyptians couldn't possibly do their part to build the high Aswan Dam. They are doing their part with the profoundly appreciated aid from the Soviet Union.

As a result, in three more years Egypt will add 3 million acres to its tillable land and double its electric power to 20 billion kilowatt hours.

The benefits from all this have only begun to be somewhat shared by the unskilled Egyptian masses. They are better off but only slightly. Egypt's socialism has rewarded those who have contributed most to the nation's productive capacity—the salaried middle class and skilled industrial workers.

The lot of the landless peasants—at least 15 million despite land reform — has improved very little.

MOST OBJECTIVE economists are worried about the future. They see Egypt precariously short of hard currency, spending its reserves to a dangerously low level, and borrowing to the hilt.

Another unanswered question is whether Egyptian socialism will in the end deprive the economy of vitally needed initiative and enterprise. Despite the size of the private sector (70 per cent), all big industry is nationalized and the directing voice of the government is pervasive.

The only answer I can give is that President Nasser is no dogmatist, that he is flexible when he needs to be, and is determined to make Egypt a better place for all Egyptians than at any time in its long history.

Speech Pay Ban Hurts Humphrey

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

As so many others, he is finding it hard to live within his government pay—$43,000 salary and $10,000 expense account, both taxable.

THE VICE PRESIDENT'S salary is the second highest in the government and the same amount paid Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass. It is topped only by the president's $100,000 salary and $50,000 expense account.

The vice president isn't complaining, but his friends are concerned. They report that President Lyndon B. Johnson hasn't helped the situation by banning the acceptance of honorariums by the vice president for speeches.

As a senator, Humphrey supplemented his salary by making frequent talks before private groups, receiving from $1,000 to $3,500 for a single address.

SHORTLY AFTER taking office, the president suggested that this convenient means for meeting the rising costs of "public living and entertainment in Washington" be dropped by the vice president. Instead, he proposed that Humphrey do his speaking without fee and at fund-raising affairs for the Democratic Party. This was agreed to.

According to the vice president's political friends, his financial plight is clearly indicated by his (unannounced) plans to entertain President Johnson and the nation's 50 governors in his home state next month.

With the governors' annual meeting scheduled July 26-29 in Minneapolis, Humphrey is inviting the state executives and their main speaker—the president—to his home in Waverly, Minn.

CAREFUL PLANNING is going into Humphrey's affair because of its national political significance. Most of the nation's press will be represented and the vice president will have his first opportunity since the 1964 convention to host the politically important Democratic governors.

To do the honors up right, friends working on the preparations have informed the vice president the party will cost "more than $5,000" or more than half his yearly expense fund.

When a Minnesota supporter proposed an "entertainment fund" be set up to take care of this event and others, the vice president and his aides immediately objected. They wanted no repeat of the publicized "Nixon fund" which became a major issue in the 1952 campaign.

As of now, the only thing certain about Humphrey's party for the governors is that it will be held.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON, having his own problems with the high cost of White House entertaining, is helping the vice president in other ways.

Whenever possible, the president lets Humphrey travel in his big Air Force jet or sees that he has access to other military planes.

Humphrey also is provided with an official limousine and chauffeur and Secret Service protection. However, no decision has been made on furnishing the vice president an official residence, although the president supports the idea. Humphrey is maintaining two home—one in Washington, the other in Waverly, Minn.—out of his salary.

IT PAYS to be a member of the exclusive "President's Club." A paid-up membership —$1,000 or more annual contribution to the Democratic Party —entitles its holder to a special foreign and domestic policy briefing in Washington this summer.

Democratic National Treasurer Richard Maguire is notifying the club's 4,000 members that upon payment of their 1965 dues an invitation will be sent to attend a White House seminar in August.

According to Maguire, President Johnson, cabinet members and Central Intelligence Director Raborn will be on hand to brief the "club" members. The big contributors will be given first-hand information on all crises—Viet Nam, the Dominican Republic, or others that may develop.

Marin Wildlife Turns Up Beside Busy Highways, In Every City

HOW MANY Novato-bound commuters, rushing along Highway 101 north of the Black Point turnoff Thursday evening, bothered to look twice at the grazing herd in that lush little cove where Novato Creek winds around a rock outcropping and close to the freeway? Neither cattle nor sheep they were, but a pretty little flock of deer.

By the time it penetrated our exhaust-fogged consciousness, we were too far down the highway to stop and get a photo....

IT'S SURPRISING how much wildlife quietly saunters among the suburban yards and streets of Marin. We've seen deer in just about every city; have watched a mother quail lead a whole little football squad of chicks across busy Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Ross at sunset, and have jumped when an "ornament" on a stone fence outside a San Rafael landmark turned out to be a very lively owl.

We worry when we don't see familiar critters on our daily journey up the brushy little road from Fiddler's Green to Highway 27. When we miss the little, brown eastern-type rabbits, we wonder if they've gotten too friendly with the quick, small gray fox that lives in a hole on the same road bank, or if a neighbor dog ran them down.

One morning was spoiled when we found Bre'r Fox dead on the highway, but apparently there were others home in the den. With a flip of their tails they disappear into the brush as our car chugs up the rise.

The squirrel is too slugabed to greet us on our way to work, but he's there by the mailbox when we come home. Sleepy shore birds that barely ruffle their feathers as we pass in the morning, stalk off in ungainly dignity at our homecoming to the marsh; the sooty little swallows divebomb so close it seems they're trying to scrape splattered bugs off the windshield.

MORNING OR EVENING, though, the ponds are a-twinkle with long-legged striped little birds we've always called snipe, for ignorance of their true monikers. We've heard them cry "kill-deer" in the Texas bayous, along the chill, cobalt shores of Lake Michigan, and the glass-garnished sands of Long Beach.

Which brings to mind a memorable bit of teen-age education known as the "snipe-hunt."

We were introduced to the sport as tenderfeet in Santa Fe High in New Mexico. Our new friends seemed awfully gleeful as we were left alone in a dark arroyo one moonless night, with instructions to sit quiet and hold the gunnysack open on the ground while more experienced hunters herded the elusive little birds down the gully.

Awfully dry country for snipe, we thought, but then we were new there. Also, our pals were being awfully quiet—how were they going to chase birds our way without making noise?

After about an hour, the gunnysack twitched. Before we could close it, it jumped again.

"I've got some," we yelled. No answer.

Clutching our palpitating bag, we blundered through the dark back to the car. Only one girl was there, surprised to see us.

The rest of the gang had gone straight from our lonely outpost to the car, giggled for a while about our stupidity, and then gotten worried that we were lost after finally realizing a joke had been played.

They'd gone looking for the greenhorn new kid.

We honked the horn; we were gleeful about being one up on them by having birds in the bag.

But what were they, our friends demanded? There are no snipe in the desert at 7,200-foot elevation. In the yellow light of three tired flashlights, we carefully opened the gunnysack.

Itchy Head, Dry Throat Might Lead To End Of Beautiful Bridge Game

WASHINGTON — As everyone knows by now, the biggest story of the year was the bridge-cheating scandal at the 13th annual world contract bridge team tournament in Buenos Aires.

Two British players, Terence Reese and Boris Schapiro, were accused of using signals to tell each other how many hearts they were holding. They were said to use finger movements, and the evidence was damaging enough for the non-playing British captain to default his team's points.

The impact of this revelation has made a tremendous impression on the bridge world, not only with professionals but amateurs as well. The other evening I was over at a friend's house where four people who had been playing bridge for years started a game.

After the first hand was dealt, one friend, whom I'll call George, said to one of the opposing players, Fred, "Why did you do that?"

"DO WHAT?" Fred wanted to know.

"Scratch your head."

"Because it itched," Fred said heatedly. "What do you want me to do with my head when it itches?"

"Why didn't you scratch your head before I dealt?"

"Because it didn't itch before you dealt. What are you trying to say, anyway?"

"Never mind. It just seems strange that I never saw you scratch you head before."

"Well, it so happens I scratch my head a lot. Do you want me to tell you before I'm going to scratch my head?"

"Why can't you scratch your head after the bidding?"

"I will if it itches after the bidding. But what's the sense of scratching it if it doesn't itch?"

"COME ON," Hilda said. "Will somebody bid?"

A few hands later I asked if anyone wanted anything to drink. Everyone said, "Yes," and I served them.

George picked up his glass in one hand and held his cards in the other. He said, "Two hearts."

Fred said, "Why did you pick up your glass with four fingers on the outside?"

"How else are you supposed to pick up a glass?"

"I use three fingers."

"You use three, I use four," George said angrily.

"It's strange that you would pick up your glass with four fingers and say, 'Two hearts.'"

"What the hell's so strange about it?"

"I was thirsty."

"I'm thirsty, too, but I never lift my glass until the bidding's over."

"Are you accusing me of something, Fred?"

"I don't know. But I'll be interested to see how many hearts you have."

"Well, if you're so interested, why don't you bid?"

"I bid three spades."

"You scratched your head again. I saw it!" George shouted.

"It itched again."

"How come it only itches when you bid spades?"

"IT DOESN'T only itch when I have spades. The last time it itched I bid diamonds."

"Then you admit you're signalling to your partner."

"I admit no such thing. And I refuse to play with a cur like you," Fred said.

"That goes double for me," George replied. "Any man that glass and then bids two hearts has to be cheating."

Today is Wednesday, June 9, the 160th day of 1965 with 205 to follow.

The moon is approaching its full phase. The morning star is Saturn. The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

American lyricist and composer Cole Porter was born on this day in 1893.

On this day in history:

In 1942, Selective Service officials issued a new order placing men with children last on conscription lists.

In 1943, Congress passed an act providing for "pay-as-you-go" income tax deductions, authorizing employers to withhold payments from weekly salary checks of their employees.

A thought for the day—French novelist Victor Hugo said: "The supreme happiness of life is the conviction that we are loved."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Don't Take A Finesse In Wrong Suit When Playing

The classic reason for climbing a mountain is "Because it's there."

Opening lead — ♠ 2

South won the first trick in dummy with the ace of spades and lost the heart finesse to the king.

RETURNS CLUB

West returned a club through dummy's king, trying a finesse of his own and giving his partner two club tricks at once. East eventually got a diamond trick at well, defeating the contract.

South had to try the diamond finesse sooner or later, but the heart finesse was quite unnecessary.

If West had the king of hearts, it would be fatal to let him win an early trick with it; and if East had the king of hearts South could make his contract without taking the finesse.

LEAD ACE

South should win the first trick with the king of clubs and lead the ace of hearts, not even making a gesture in the direction of a trump finesse.

If the king of hearts should drop, well and good; when it does not drop, South leads the 10 of diamonds for a finesse.

East wins with the king of diamonds but cannot take enough tricks to defeat the contract since he cannot get two club tricks from his side of the table.

GOOD DEFENSE

South discards a club on the third diamond while West follows suit. South discards another club on the fourth diamond, while West ruffs with the king of trumps.

DAILY QUESTION

You hold:

♠ A 9

♦ A Q J 9 5
♣ K 7

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two diamonds.

You can bid game in notrump next, even though the hearts are not really stopped. Bid the diamonds first, giving partner time to supply more information. If he bids hearts you can go to game in hearts instead of in notrump.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Humphrey Due On Early Bird Hookup

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, in Washington, will be questioned from London by a group of foreign students Monday in a live one-hour NBC-TV discussion via the Early Bird satellite.

The discussion, for which NBC-TV plans to choose five or six students representing a cross-section of college-age young people from Western Europe, India and Africa, is scheduled to take place on the morning "Today" show (7-8 a.m. EDT).

Humphrey and the students will, of course, be able to see each other throughout the conversation. The purpose of the talk, according to the network, is for American viewers to "gain a better understanding of the questions foreign students have about American politicies while at the same time the students will learn the reasons for these policies from a major government executive."

FILMS OF LAST week's walk in space by astronaut Edward White were presented at various hours yesterday by the networks, including a half-hour prime time color broadcast (at 9:30 p.m. EDT) by NBC-TV.

The fantastic film has by now made its impression numerous times on television, as well as being described in full in yesterday's and today's newspapers, but the experience of seeing it still shakes one up a bit. Seeing the blue and green colors of the earth below made one almost feel as thought the film was actually an animated cartoon, so unreal and eerie was the effect at first.

ANOTHER NBC-TV special last night, "Who Can Vote?", pictorialized for an hour the subject of minorities and their right of franchise as it is affected around the country. The administration's voting rights bill was certainly a major stimulant for the program.

Most of the hour was devoted to the Negro drive for voter registration, but there were also brief reports on the situation of American Indians, Mexican-Americans and the Puerto Ricans of New York.

FAMILIES READY

Twin, Triplet Ready For College Diplomas

That's what will happen at Sonoma State College in Rohnert Park Saturday when Helge and Dorothy Bruckner, formerly of San Anselmo and now of Petaluma, receive their bachelor of arts degrees.

Wearing cap and gown and marching with them in the 10 a.m. outdoor procession will be Dr. Martha Bruckner of 168 Camino de Herrara, San Anselmo, Helge's mother, who is leaving her post as assistant professor of German at Sonoma State.

Twenty - two-year-old Dorothy Bruckner, who has been vice president of the student body and is getting her degree in English, will be applauded by three sisters whose college careers have been interrupted by having children.

Dorothy and sisters Helen (Mrs. Ted) Whaley of Kearns, Utah, and Joan (Mrs. Gary) Tillotson of Sacramento, are triplets. Another sister, Jeannette (Mrs. William) Durfee, is coming from Emigrant Gap. The three will bring along husbands and a combined total of eight children.

Mrs. Bruckner and her sisters are daughters of Richard Wilson, now of San Francisco, and Bernice Wilson, now of Auburn. They grew up in San Anselmo. The triplets graduated from Redwood High in Larkspur in 1960 and went on to the College of Marin, where Dorothy met Helge Bruckner.

Helge is a Sir Francis Drake High School graduate of 1958 and twin of Hagen Bruckner, a former Peace Corps volunteer in Colombia. The family hopes that Hagen will make it back for graduation from a return trip to Colombia, where he has been buying jaguar and ocelot skins from the Indians.

Both families will congratulate the graduates at a 3 p.m. reception Saturday at the San Anselmo home of Dr. Bruckner.

Helge, a political science major, and Dorothy were married a year ago March and have been taking turns as breadwinners to achieve their goal: A Ph. D. in philosophy for Helge from a German university.

He has worked this year for a printing company, taking only one course needed to complete his degree. He will keep his job next year while Dorothy returns to Sonoma State for a high school teaching credential.

Then Dorothy will aim for a teaching job in Germany so Helge can study at the University of Freiburg, where his mother met and married his father, Josef Bruckner, a Romanian newspaperman, before World War II.

The musicology thesis she wrote at Freiburg is Martha Bruckner's reason for leaving Sonoma State. She has a contract with a Dutch publisher, Knuf of Hilversum, to write a book, first in German and then in English, from her 1938 thesis on the first years of the Leipzig Music Magazine, a publication of the time of Beethoven.

Dr. Bruckner was a music and drama critic in Romania. The family moved to Germany after the father died during the war, and came to the United States in 1955. In 1956-58 Dr. Bruckner was music critic for the Independent-Journal. She has also taught at Dominican College of San Rafael.

TWIN-TRIPLET COUPLE GRADUATE—Helge Bruckner, who is a twin, and his wife Dorothy, who's a triplet, try on their Sonoma State College graduation robes with assistance of Helge's mother, Martha Bruckner of San Anselmo, who is leaving her job as assistant professor of German at the college to write a book for a Dutch publisher.

Budget Review Of Sanitary District Set

Preliminary budget figures show an operating cost of $52,008, including $22,640 in wages, $6,850 utilities cost and $11,350 for legal advice, truck maintenance, insurance and office supplies.

The city of Belvedere is expected to pay $15,542 of the total, as its share for having its sewage treated at the district plant. The remainder, $36,466, will have added to it about $4,500 in bond redemption costs.

The present tax rate is 58.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation, including 6.5 cents for bond redemption. The budget for the present fiscal year, including bond redemption costs and excluding Belvedere's share, is $34,873.98.
